SPECIAL TO THE NEWS
news@covnews.com

COVINGTON, Ga. - From the moment you see the leaves begin to turn golden, reddish, or brown and you feel that coolness in the morning or evening air, you suspect that Fall is around the corner and at the beginning of Fall comes an annual event hosted by Community Organizations, Law Enforcement Agencies, Faith-Based Organizations and other various groups within the communities we share - The National Faith and Blue Initiative.

BUSINESS SOCIAL CIRCLE

Blue Willow Inn hopes to reopen soon

STAFF REPORT
news@covnews.com

Editor's Note: The following article was written by Madeline Burgess, wife of former Social Circle mayor Jim Burgess.

SOCIAL CIRCLE, Ga. — Good news from Social Circle. The revised version of the iconic Blue Willow Inn is expected to open again possibly as early as December.

The Blue Willow Inn may be credited with putting Social Circle on the map and this renowned establishment had quite a history. An old home, the John Upshaw House (circa 1917) on N Cherokee, was last used as a church when it was acquired by Louis and Billie Van Dyke in 1991. They both loved antiques and Billie was especially fond of the Blue Willow china pattern. The old house now had a new purpose, a new name, and Blue Willow china.

This is where luck played its role. The Blue Willow Inn hosted a visit from the late popular writer, Lewis Grizzard, who wrote a nationally syndicated column about the restaurant and the now legendary fried green tomatoes. It was fried green tomatoes along with many other Southern "fixins" and its famed hospitality which drew thousands of visitors to the restaurant over the following years. The Blue Willow Inn became more than a restaurant; it became a southern institution of fine dining.

Then came the bad luck. The great recession of 2007-2009 coincided with Lewis's ambitious plan to create a retail shopping center behind the restaurant. Under the severe financial strain from heavily mortgaged properties and loss of tenants, the Van Dykes filed for bankruptcy in 2010. Sadly, Lewis passed away in November of that year and Billie was left to deal with the financial crisis. In August 2011, under a plan to emerge from Chapter 11 bankruptcy, the 7.1 acre property was acquired by local real estate investor, Donald Poss.

Fast forward to 2022 when the property was purchased for $2.5 million by Covington real estate businessman Andre Merckerson and four partners who live in New York State. The property included the Blue Willow Inn building, a residential structure used as an office, and a commercial/retail center which includes the Church at the Grove, Hot Rod's Diner, Willow Boutique Salon and Spa, a clothing sales distribution center and other small businesses. The Blue Willow Inn restaurant, under lease to Donald Poss, closed its door due to the pandemic in March 2020.

REOPEN CONTINUED ON A2

Current owners plan to reopen the restaurant under new management by the end of this year. Former Blue Willow Inn Operations Manager Steve DeMoss was hired as part of the team to head up marketing and web site management for the project. A three step process has been initiated to reach the December goal. The first step includes hiring a contractor to undertake the building restoration and updating. In the second step, all building codes and requirements need to be met in order to "get the door open." The next step, following the completion of steps one and two, is to open the new restaurant.

The opening of a restaurant involves the review and approval of several government agencies. State law administered by the Walton County Health Department requires extensive documentation to obtain a permit for a food service establishment.

Added to this is the need for compliance with the City's numerous building codes and regulations. It may take several weeks to complete necessary technical reviews and approval. City Zoning Administrator Barbara Schlageter pointed out that the Blue Willow reopening is the equivalent of starting a new business since the building has been vacant for so long a period.

A local chef has been selected to organize and manage the new restaurant. She will also be a part owner of the business. Executive Chef Carmenia Morgan-Tyrus currently owns and operates the Musulyn's International Restaurant and Musulyn's Catering & Event Planning, LLC in Covington. The restaurant assimilates offerings in African, Caribbean, and Southern cuisine. Chef Carmenia holds a degree in Culinary Arts from Gwinnett Technical College with hands-on kitchen experience from Georgia Terrace Hotel and nine years of personal catering.

Chef Carmenia plans to retain the Blue Willow logo in naming the restaurant which will be called, "Blue Willow Fine Southern Cuisine." It will be a family restaurant with a bar for cocktails, beer and wine and will also include a quick lunch menu. A "Coffee with Carmenia" shop could be incorporated in the gift area. In addition to meats and seafood, her vegetable selection will of course include fried green tomatoes! The restaurant style (buffet, sit down, meat and two, etc.) has yet to be decided. The chef has also talked to former owner Billie Van Dyke who has offered suggestions about basic southern menu items and the restaurant format.

Above all, Chef Carmenia doesn't want "to disappoint." Her goal is to "bring the restaurant back, to elevate it, to make it even better, and to make it into a destination again."

She realizes that her dream and biggest challenge will be "to give customers what they want, to make customer service the highest priority and achieve an 'A' rating by her guests." And she is putting her trust in the Lord, who she says, "has never let her down."

The Blue Willow was an era that has come and gone. For years it was a destination for many local and international travelers, which was great for our local economy and we all enjoyed the international recognition of Social Circle as a place to dine.

Thanks primarily to COVID, however, those tourist dollars have effectively dried up.

Chef Carmina hopes to turn her restaurant once again into a major tourist destination. I think if she is able to achieve even half of her goals and ambitions, she will be rewarded by the strong support of this community.

Elections

The Covington News

Editor's Note:

The Covington News sent questionnaires to each local candidate for the 2023 election on Nov. 7. Answers are printed as they were received with only editing for newspaper style. Due to spacing, the other questionnaires will be published in future editions.

Mayor of Covington candidate:Fleeta Baggett

Candidate name: Fleeta Baggett
Position sought: Mayor
Educational background: Newton County High School, Valdosta State University with BFA in Marketing and P.R.
Professional background: Owned and operated Trinkets, which was located on the downtown square, for 5 years. Former K-4 preschool teacher. Managed the day-to-day operations of two signature South Carolina golf courses and their pro-shops for over 8 years.
If elected, what do you hope to achieve? I'm running for Mayor to continue my efforts fighting for positive, sustainable growth, better EMS services, infrastructure upgrades and advocating for our public safety personnel. We must allow the community to grow with quality growth. We can't be overwhelmed by high density development. By adhering to strict zoning laws and limiting blanket special use permits, we can achieve quality growth, not quantity. The lack of sufficient EMS service in the city is a major issue that needs to be addressed. The EMS license needs to be returned to the county and out of the hands of a for profit entity that isn't providing adequate services to our citizens. Infrastructure upgrades to our water and sewage system also need to continue. Through ARPA, the city has received $56 million from the State of Georgia to begin these improvements. Also, our downtown and secondary streets need upgrading. We must also continue supporting our public safety personnel in order to ensure the safety of our entire community.

FLEETA BAGGETT

Covington City Council, East Ward Post 3 candidate: Dania Bernard

Candidate name: Dania Bernard
Position sought: City Council East Ward Post 3
Educational background: Bachelors in Communications at Florida Gulf Coast University
Professional background: Technology & Aviation
If elected what do you hope to achieve? The full scoop can be found on my campaign website, but in a nutshell I endeavor to:
- Strike a balance between progress and preservation – stabilizing growth while preserving Covington's small town charm.
- Source federal funding from the Bipartisan Infrastructure Bill to build a new facility for our 911 dispatchers, rehabilitate our underground pipelines, develop pedestrian-friendly infrastructure, and to create a low/no cost transportation option for seniors.

- Create resources for our local workforce to re-skill and capitalize on employment opportunities coming to Covington.
- Promote sustainable practices to reduce our dependency on landfills. Collaborate with service providers, organizations, and City staff to develop a commercial recycling program.
What do voters need to know about you? I worship at Passion City Church, have an on-line business, play four musical instruments, trained with astronauts, facilitated life-saving organ transfers, traveled to 58 countries, and care for 22 houseplants.

DANIA BERNARD

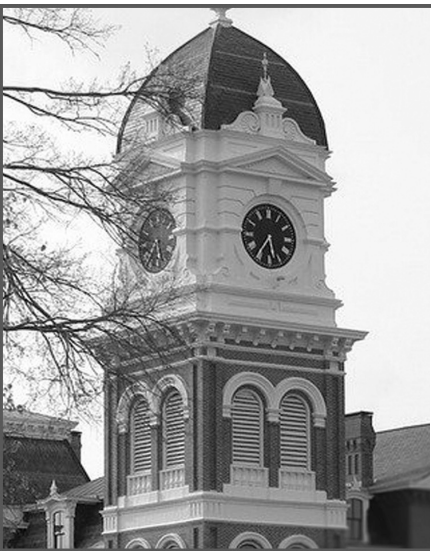

Mayor of Porterdale candidate: Michael Patterson

Candidate name: Michael Patterson
Position sought: Mayor of the City of Porterdale Educational background: Graduated from Rockdale Christian School in 2004. I am a Certified Temperament Counselor, Certified Pastoral Counselor and Professional Clinical Member of the NCCA. I am currently working to receive my Bachelor's Degree as a Christian Counselor.
Professional background: I have served as Senior Pastor of Faith Tabernacle in Conyers since 2012. As a teenager, I worked with a septic tank company for a couple of years over the summer time, then work at Firehouse Music until I was 18 years old and started working full-time in ministry at the church. Throughout my ministry/professional life, I have been privileged to serve in many different positions and on many different boards and committees. I have served as a Secretary and Financial Director, President of the Georgia District Youth Ministries, Porterdale Police Chaplain, Chairman of the Porterdale Zoning Commission, Porterdale City Council Member, and, along with continuing to serve as the Senior Pastor of Faith Tabernacle, I also serve as the Principal of Faith Christian Academy.

If elected, what do you hope to achieve: My vision for Porterdale is to PROTECT, PROVIDE, & PROMOTE. I will serve our community by protecting our citizens and the history of our village, providing quality services and promoting the overall health, community and growth of our city.
What do voters need to know about you? I love my family, my church and my community! I've been a Newton County resident my entire life and have lived in Porterdale since 2010. My family roots go back multiple generations in Porterdale and I have a true love for this village.
I'm an Atlanta Braves Fan and love Baseball as I serve on the Coaching Staff of my son's little league team in the Newton County Recreational Department. I also enjoy playing Pickleball and have joined the Covington Pickleball Club. I enjoy playing drums and have had the privilege of playing for different gospel group recordings and events since I was a teenager. Pizza, Dr. Pepper and Sweet Tea are my No. 1 choice of food and drinks!

TONYA ANDERSON STATE SENATOR (DISTRICT 43)

Good news for Georgians: We can create Georgia jobs and reduce pollution at the same time

As the hottest summer on record comes to a close, I can't help but look back at this season's sweltering temperatures and reflect on the Georgians being hit hardest: our small business owners paying higher utility bills, our farmers navigating extreme temperatures, elderly Georgians most at risk of heat-related illnesses, and our children headed back to school.

Not to mention, last month, students at Clark Atlanta University were displaced following extreme flooding along campus streets and residence halls. Parts of southwest Georgia were hit by Hurricane Idalia earlier this month—with 10+ Georgia counties qualifying for disaster relief due to storm damage. The reality is clear when speaking with constituents in my district; Georgians are feeling the effects of the climate crisis. Enduring record-breaking heat underscores the urgency of progress on clean energy. We can't afford politicians who ignore the challenges our families face.

Fortunately, there is a solution on the horizon. Since the passage of the Inflation Reduction Act a year ago, Georgia ranks second in the nation for new clean energy projects, attracting over $18.83 billion in investment, the third-highest in the country.

This is good news for Georgians in every corner of our state who stand to benefit from our state's clean energy boom.

In my district, Covington will gain 1,000 new jobs from the Archer Aviation Electric Aircraft Manufacturing Facility. Augusta will see 600 new jobs from the Solvay Specialty Polymers Battery Factory. And, even sooner than expected, the Hyundai and LG Battery Plant will generate nearly 4,000 jobs in the Savannah area, thanks to Biden's clean energy plan.

TONYA ANDERSON

These federal investments solidify Georgia's leadership in electric vehicles, while also promoting affordability and accessibility.

We can protect our families from pollution and create new, good-paying jobs for families within our community at the same time.

This is a reality every single congressional Republican representing our state refuses to face. Instead, they have fought to repeal these job creating measures and all the health benefits that come along with it.

Republicans in Congress pushed our government to the brink of shutdown. The impact of the shutdown on Georgia families would be disastrous. Now, lawmakers now have until mid-November to reach an agreement to keep the government open, and in turn, protect these new Georgia jobs and the vital air and water quality monitoring from the EPA that Georgia communities rely on to stay healthy.

Now is not the time to backtrack. Opposing these policies means opposing job creation, pollution reduction, safeguards for clean air and water, and lower utility costs for our neighbors. Under the Gold Dome, I'm committed to clearing the path for clean energy jobs to expand workforce opportunities across Georgia.

This opportunity can spark an economic boom statewide, marking a historic moment where we prioritize both economic growth and environmental health. It's the only way forward.

Senator Tonya Anderson represents District 43, which includes Newton and Rockdale counties and a portion of DeKalb County.

ANN COULTER COLUMNIST

My Party: The Stupid Party!

House Speaker Kevin McCarthy is being pressured by idiots like Reps. Marjorie Taylor Greene and Lauren Boebert to impeach Biden for his son Hunter's sleazy foreign dealings — and thus decimate the reelection chances of every other Republican in Congress.

But MJT and Boebert will have tremendous fun doing it and get lots of press, and after all, isn't that the most important thing?

Meanwhile, the not-stupid — but unfocused — conservative Freedom Caucus is threatening to shut down the government unless they get concessions, primarily cuts in government spending.

I have a secret for you, GOP: No one cares about government spending. I'm sure it's important, and there are probably a hundred Wall Street Journal articles explaining why, but not more than 1% of voters will ever reward you for cutting spending.

Government spending is Republicans' "climate change." We've gotten frantic warnings that the world will end if we don't cut spending for the last 50 years — exactly as long as we've been warned that the world will end if we don't cut carbon emissions. Year after year, we do nothing, and yet the world doesn't come remotely close to ending.

You only have a bare majority in one house of Congress, Republicans: This is no time to be hot-shots for causes that won't get you a single vote.

But you know what would be hugely popular? Put down the Journal and look around you. There's not a corner of this country that isn't sick to death of "migrants" (illegal aliens) streaming into their towns and neighborhoods. And this horror show, now playing nationwide, is 100% Biden's fault. 100%.

Even the most cosseted, liberal "sanctuary cities" have cried uncle, pleading for Biden to cut off the flow of illegals.

Just by way of example:

In New York ("sanctuary city" since

DICK YARBROUGH COLUMNIST

Remembering a visit to Iraq with Georgia's 48th Brigade Combat Team

Eighteen years ago this week, I ventured off to Iraq to report on the brave men and women of Georgia's 48th Brigade Combat Team, located in an accurately-named area of the country called the Triangle of Death. It is thought that the Garden of Eden was located somewhere in that general area. If so, Adam and Eve were lucky to get out when they did. The serpent, too. It was not an ideal place to raise kids or apple trees.

I got to Iraq via the suggestion of my friend Bill Stewart in Brunswick. Stewart, who had been chief of staff to Georgia U.S. Sen. Mack Mattingly, suggested to a former aide that it might be good to invite me over to see first-hand what was going on in Iraq. That former aide was now Gen. Stewart Rodeheaver, a great American.

My media friends told me that the trip would not be worth the effort, that I would be confined to a safe area called the Green Zone, and watched over by the public information people. I expressed those concerns in an email to Gen. Rodeheaver, who assured me that would not be the case. And it was not.

I don't know what I was expecting when I got there, but what I discovered is the place was dirty and dangerous. There wasn't much vegetation but a lot of sand and wind. Also, unlike wars in the past, the enemy was not necessarily facing you. In Iraq, the bad guys could be in front, in back or on both sides. They were no safe havens. As the famed arsonist William Tecumseh Sherman once observed, "War is hell." So was Iraq.

I also discovered an extraordinary group of Georgians, 4,600 citizen-soldiers who had left their homes, families and jobs and were now stationed in a miserable part of the world. Unlike regular military for whom soldiering is a full-time job, the men and women of the 48th BCT were members of the Georgia National Guard. Back home, they were schoolteachers, mechanics, prison guards, truck drivers, postal employees. You name it. In Iraq, they were soldiers, first and foremost.

Not only did they risk their lives daily trying to avoid IEDs (Improvised Explosive Devices), which could be detonated in something as simple as a soda can, as well as getting shot at and shooting back, the 48th BCT unit also helped in the construction and repair of bridge and sewer systems, utilities and operating a much-needed medical clinic as well as teaching job skills to the locals.

I saw the war a bit too up-close-and-personal while on patrol with members of the 648th Engineering Battalion out of Statesboro as they swept through the notorious Triangle of Death — so called because of the terrorist activity in the area between the cities of Mahmudiyah, Yusifiyah and Lucafiyah — looking for IEDs. We found one. Under the Humvee in which I was seated. A couple of bad guys exploded an IED as we were crossing a bridge near our home base of Camp Striker. Had our vehicle been going a few seconds slower or had the bad guys been a little faster on the draw, someone else might be occupying this weekly space, not me. We later took a picture of the crater — about the size of a kitchen table — which I keep in my office as a reminder that war is not an abstraction. War is hell. People die.

It has been 18 years since that memorable journey to Iraq. Gen. Stewart Rodeheaver is retired, lives in Eatonton and runs Vizitech USA, a digital education and training company. We still correspond on occasion. John King, a former commander of the 48th Brigade Combat Team, is now Georgia's Insurance Commissioner. Then Lt. Col. and later Major Gen. Tom Carden is the Adjutant General of Georgia, which oversees the Army and Air National Guards in the state.

But there were others I wrote about: Dr. John Vogel, of Atlanta, and medic Angela Gowen, from Palmetto; Sgt. Eric Farmbrough, of Statesboro; Staff Sgt. Britt Smith, of Dublin; Shaun Todd, from Claxton; Sgt. Bruce Robinson, from Buena Vista; Gary Thurman, from Winder; Sgt. James Rackley, of Montezuma; Bill Huffman, from Gray and so many more. I don't know where they are today. I hope they are well. They likely won't remember me in the brief time I spent with them in that hellhole called Iraq, but I will never forget them. Heroes are hard to forget.

1989), migrants (illegal aliens) are crawling over every square inch of the place. You can't walk down Park Avenue or through Central Park without feeling like you've stumbled into a Caracas shantytown. The migrants (illegals) are expected to cost the city $4 billion this year alone, and government estimates are notoriously low.

Mayor Eric Adams has said the "migrants" (illegals) are going to "destroy" the city, so for the past year he's been trying to dump them on other parts of the state. We're a "sanctuary city"! Let's ruin the suburbs instead. In response, more than 30 of New York's 62 counties have passed emergency measures refusing to take them.

That includes Erie County (Buffalo) — 2-1 registered Democrats — where smug executive Mark C. Poloncarz announced in May that it was "morally repugnant" to turn away migrants (illegal aliens). For the cherry on top, he added, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Within weeks of the migrants (illegals) arriving, they'd already committed two heinous sexual assaults, and Mr. "Morally Repugnant" refused to take any more.

The last time New York state voted for a Republican president was in 1984. This is New York today, every day:

- "Protests erupt outside new migrant facility in Queens"
- "NYC migrant crisis: Staten Island demonstrators block bus during protests"
- "NYC migrant shelter tour interrupted by shouting protesters"
- "Hundreds protest migrant relief center located near Nassau County border"

Republicans, are you awake?

In Massachusetts, the progressive, lesbian governor has declared a state of emergency over the "migrants" (illegals), requested an additional quarter-billion dollars from the legislature to deal with them and attacked the White House for "a federal crisis of inaction."

Yarmouth, Massachusetts, voted 60-40 for Biden. Today, there are daily protests outside the town hall and "heated five-hour" meetings to denounce the migrant influx.

When Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis sent a teeming horde of 50 illegals to progressive paradise Martha's Vineyard, this "sanctuary destination" called in the National Guard to remove them.

The last time Massachusetts voted for a Republican president was in 1984.

Across Chicago, a city virtually dedicated to giving succor to criminals, residents are up in arms over the "migrants" (illegal aliens)

Headlines:

- "Residents protest plan to house 300 migrants at Hyde Park area motel"
- "Edgewater (Chicago) residents protest as city announces plan to shelter migrants at Broadway Armory"
- "Chicago residents protest new migrant shelter in their neighborhood, leading to delay in opening"

As South Shore community activist Natasha Dunn put it, "Our specific frustration lies in the continuous and blatant disregard for the safety and overall quality of life for black residents, as many of these migrants have been dumped in our neighborhoods."

Just so we're clear, the GOP is never, ever going to win the black vote — sorry, clueless donors! But black people sure aren't going to hate you for impeaching Biden over his refusal to stop inundating the country with millions of poverty-stricken, illiterate illegals, cutting into Americans' government services. (How many black people do you think care about government spending? Or whites, Hispanics or Asians, for that matter.)

Generally, voters don't like government shut-downs. They're also not wild about a president of their own party being impeached.

If you're going to do either one, GOP, for God's sake, at least do it for a cause that's 80-20 popular.

Alcovy High School and NCCA STEM Institute junior, Francisco Alvarado, has achieved a distinction by being chosen as one of only 69 students in the state of Georgia to serve on state school superintendent Richard Woods' esteemed 2023-2024 Student Advisory Council.

This council provides a unique platform for students to actively participate in shaping educational policies, discussing vital issues and serving as ambassadors for their respective schools. Throughout the year, these student advisors will engage with Superintendent Woods, offering valuable feedback on the impact of state policies in the classroom and addressing various education-related matters.

Alvarado expressed his reason for applying for the unique opportunity.

"This was a great opportunity; it was something I didn't want to pass up on, especially since I want to be more involved in my community," Alvarado said. "I thought this would be a great way to reach out and take the next step."

This year's council members were selected through a rigorous process, which included writing essays on diverse educational topics such as curriculum, graduation requirements, assessments, teacher recruitment and retention and access to resources in rural areas.

Alvarado emphasized the importance of addressing mental health issues within the student body.

"I think you can never stop talking about it," Alvarado said. "It's one of the most critical problems any school system faces and addressing it and learning from the students themselves is one of the best ways to solve the issues for the well-being of the students."

"It's really an honor to be accepted to serve. I'm really excited and looking forward to meeting the other people on the council and networking with people I know will help boost my status as a member of the community and as a student. So many opportunities have opened up because of this, and I'm very grateful."

In addition to his service on the Student Advisory Council, Alvarado is a student who has completed or is currently enrolled in numerous Advanced Placement courses, including biology, seminar, world history, US history, pre-calculus, computer science and language.

He is actively involved in TSA and has held officer positions every year. Furthermore, he is engaged with FBLA, the Hispanic Student Union, as well as the Newton County Community Coalition and the Youth Action Team.

Francisco's aspirations include graduating from a four-year university with a major in computer engineering.

Woods praised the value of direct student involvement in shaping education policy.

"Georgia's public schools exist to serve students, and it is absolutely essential that we receive feedback directly from those directly affected by statewide policies," Woods said. "Every year, my Student Advisory Council is an incredibly valuable resource for me and for my colleagues at the Georgia Department of Education as we make decisions that will directly impact the classroom. The students selected for this year's Council are a prestigious group representing schools across the state, and I look forward to working with them to expand educational opportunities for all of Georgia's children."

NCCA STEM Institute Principal Chad Walker commended Alvarado's achievements.

"Francisco Alvarado's selection to serve on the 2023-2024 Student Advisory Council is a testament to his dedication and leadership within our school community," Walker said. "We are proud of his accomplishments and look forward to seeing the positive impact he will undoubtedly make as a representative of both our school and the district."

NEWTON ELLE STANDARD

Standard takes pride as Newton's primary pitcher

By GARRETT PITTS
Sports Editor

Senior Elle Standard has made her name as the primary pitcher for the Newton Lady Rams during her career.

Going into her final season, Standard felt like she was at the top of her game and that a change of approach could make her even better.

"I have tried to play with more of an aggressive attitude. In the past three years, I have felt like if I did something [wrong], I would just get down on myself," Standard said. "This year, I have tried to change the attitude completely with, 'This is my senior year, if anything happens just brush it off and go to the next play.'"

Throughout her high school career, Standard has pitched many innings for the Lady Rams. Looking back, Standard sees a clear distinction between the player she is now versus the one she was as a freshman.

"I have definitely picked up speed and the spin has gotten a lot better, I have also developed two more pitches. I came into high school with five pitches and now I have closer to seven," Standard said. "In terms of hitting, I have gotten a lot better. I used to be more focused on pitching than I was hitting but now I have got more power in it and I am getting behind the ball. I think I have advanced in both areas."

During her final season, Standard has pitched multiple complete games for the Lady Rams. The senior is seen as the player who is on the mound in almost every game.

For Standard, that is seen as something to take pride in.

"I do love it, I love being that person that is out there everyday and pitches every game," Standard said. "I love pitching. It has always been something I have enjoyed."

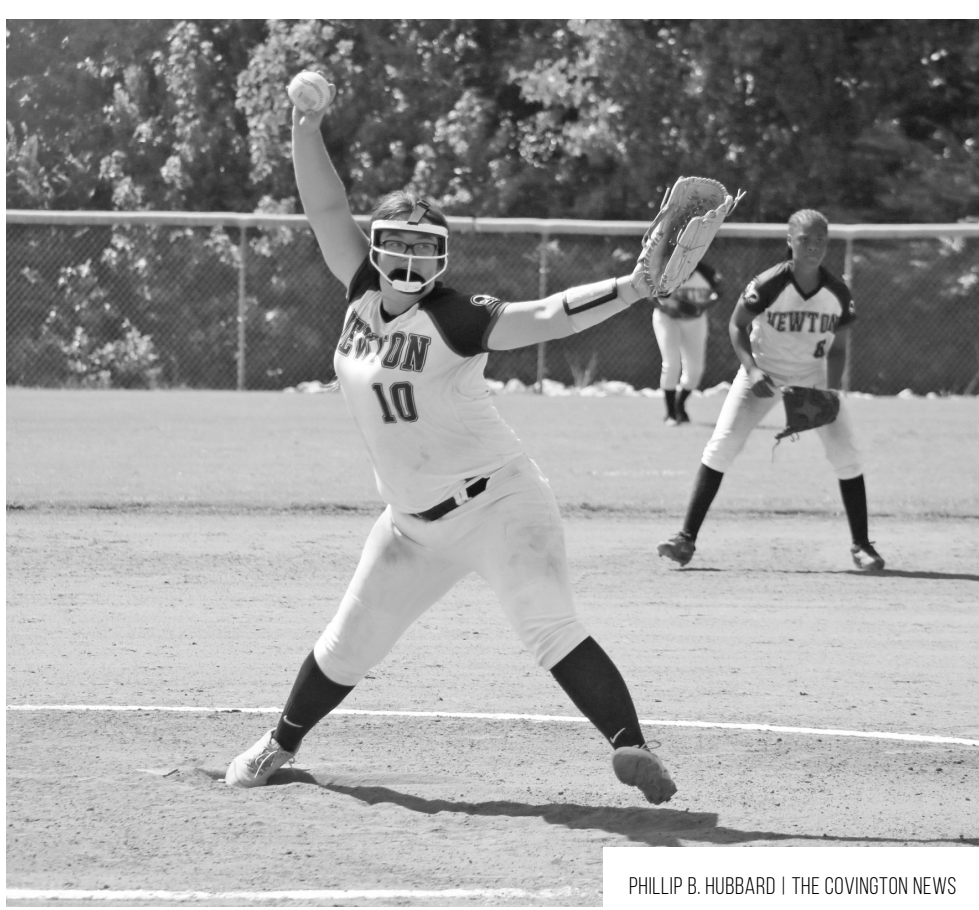

Standard has pitched 86 innings for the Lady Rams in 2023. In those games, the senior has a 3.34 earned run average and she has struck out 57 batters.

Though the Lady Rams have not had the season Standard hoped for in her senior year, she feels good about where the team is going in the future.

"I have definitely seen improvement in the team as far as our attitude. We came into the season indifferent with each other, we have had our ups and downs," Standard said. "We have a younger team but we flipped our attitudes to, 'Hey, keep your heads up and go to the next game and try your hardest.' We are a team and we work together. We are going to do our best no matter what."

As a senior, Standard took that opportunity to be a leader on a roster with a large number of underclassmen.

"I motivate them to where if something happens, we move onto the next play so you can be in a better position then you were," Standard said.

As her senior season wraps up, Standard mentioned many factors to why she will always remember her time as part of the Lady Rams.

"I like being around the girls, I love my teammates and I love my coaches," Standard said. "I love the fans and everything about the environment we have and the positive attitudes we keep."

biggest rivalries. Usually, people would say Newton and Eastside are our biggest rivalries, but I feel like Woodward is," CeCe said. "I was so excited. It felt great to have five wins in a row."

The Lady Tigers' latest region title quest was a team effort.

Eight players batted .350 and above this season along with six players connecting on at least one homer.

Kaitlyn leads all Lady Tigers with a .484 batting average along with 27 RBIs and tied for first in home runs with four. Senior Makinzie Johnson has four homers, too.

McDonald registers a .385 batting average and has 12 RBIs this season.

Meanwhile, CeCe contributed to Alcovy's success in the pitcher's circle as well as at the plate. She has a .444 average and 19 RBIs as well as 6.07 ERA and 35 strikeouts.

Olivia Tomberlain assisted with her pitching performance, recording a 4.73 ERA and 50 strikeouts.

Alcovy wreaked havoc on the base paths as well.

Ashlyn Hoy led the team with 24 stolen bases followed by Jamaya Anderson's 18, CeCe's 16 and Kaitlyn's 13.

McDonald and Alani Munoz each recorded nine.

One thing each of Alcovy's 14 players seemingly possesses, though, is positive energy. Across the season, players could be seen laughing and joking no matter the circumstance.

CeCe believes that is evidence of the players' bond on and off the field.

"A lot of people can get down very easily and, when you get down, nothing goes right. Everybody as a team comes together as a family and that's when that sister's bond comes in," CeCe said. "We all just build each other. That's just us. That's our sisterhood."

There have been a lot of similarities between the two region championship seasons. But one major difference stands out — the non-region schedule.

that part of the schedule to help prepare her team come postseason time.

So far in the 13 out-of-region contests, the Lady Tigers have gone 3-10. Five of the 10 losses, though, were by three runs or fewer.

No matter the result, Kaitlyn believes she and her teammates have benefitted from those outings.

"Even though it might've not looked like we did so hot, we were able to pick ourselves back up to build for games like this and for the playoffs," Kaitlyn said. "We were able to, not only get better individually, but get better as a team. We are going to see those tougher teams in the playoffs."

Two more non-region games remain on Alcovy's schedule. It hosts George Walton Academy and Grovetown on Oct. 2 and 3, respectively.

Following the conclusion of the regular season, the Lady Tigers will be hosting Super Regionals for the second straight season. It is also the third straight year that Alcovy qualified for the postseason, which is the first three-year stretch since 2013-2015.

Alcovy's motivation for 2023 berthed at the end of the 2022 season.

When the Lady Tigers hosted Super Regionals last year, they swept Riverwood, but came up short both times against Effingham County.

Watching the Lady Rebels celebrate their advancement to Columbus on their home field has stuck in the Lady Tigers' mind from that moment on.

"We said right after we lost out, 'Remember that,' McDonald said. "And nobody's going to forget that feeling of how we lost and nobody wants that to happen again."

The Super Regionals will soon commence once again at Alcovy High School. And the players plan to pull out all the stops to not experience last year's feeling again.

"I'm competitive. So, I remember that. I really don't like to lose," Kaitlyn said. "Anything and everything we have to do to pull out this win, I am willing to do it. I'm sure every single person is willing to do it."

the work was done by senior running back Ray Davis out of San Francisco.

Ray had 280 yards on 26 rushing attempts with three rushing touchdowns and one receiving touchdown from nine yards out.

But ole Kirby Smart isn't going to let this defense go unnoticed that the Wildcats, led by transfer Devin Leary, only threw for 69 yards on a 9-19 night.

The defense in my opinion will be up for the task of stopping the run this week and make the passing game for the Wildcats win the game instead of the running game.

The defensive back room has been one of the bright spots on the defense this year, so fans should be saying "oh thats defense we're accustomed too."

And those fans are going to be stress free as the Bulldogs try to become the first team to three-peat in the College Football Playoff Era.

But back to the offense, they can not, and let me repeat that, CAN NOT start slow in conference play again and have to use a second half comeback to keep their current 22 game winning streak alive. Or that streak will come to an end sooner than later.

My advice is to give the best player on the offense, Brock, the ball more early because as you saw against Auburn, he only had two receptions in the first half but the rest in the second half. And the offense looks like the offense we are familiar with.

But as always UGA fans, DON'T worry, we're good.

ALCOVY SOFTBALL

DOUBLING DOWN

Lady Tigers continue Region 3-6A reign

By PHILLIP B. HUBBARD
Managing Editor

Alcovy softball did not want to relinquish ownership of its Region 3-AAAAAA crown from 2022. So, this year they put together its second straight region title season.

As far as the players are concerned, the Lady Tigers do not plan on going anywhere anytime soon either.

“We want to make a name for Alcovy,” Kaitlyn said. “We don’t want to be made fun of or whatever types of names they have for Alcovy. We want to show them that, no matter what’s going on, this softball team is here to stay. We’re building this up so we can continue to make it as state champions.”

Fellow juniors Kaylie McDonald and CeCe Williams shared Kaitlyn’s confidence. In fact, McDonald doubled down on her teammate’s statement.

“A lot of people last year thought we just got lucky and had a lucky season,” McDonald said. “Now, we showed that it wasn’t luck and we actually have a good thing going and we’re going to keep it going.”

Alcovy’s back-to-back region titles is the first time since the 2014 and 2015 seasons when the Lady Tigers have accomplished this.

In this go round, the Lady Tigers have dominated the Region

3-AAAAAA competition.

Over the last two seasons, Alcovy has an unblemished 30-0 record in region play with its last region loss coming on Sept. 29, 2021. Fourteen of those region victories were this season.

In those games, the Lady Tigers won by an average of 18-2 along with seven shutout victories.

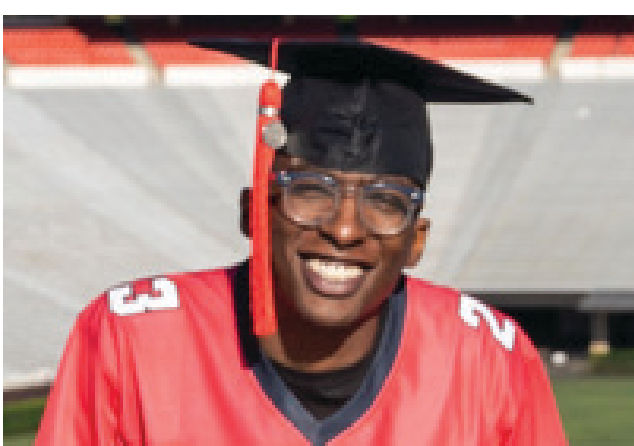

Just like last season, the two biggest wins both came against the Woodward Academy Lady War Eagles.

CeCe shared the significance of sweeping Woodward Academy over the last two seasons.

“I feel like that is one of our

DON’T Worry UGA Fans, We’re Good

The University of Georgia Bulldogs are currently 5-0 (2-0 SEC) after coming off a tough and physical road victory against the Auburn Tigers 27-20. Reigning John Mackey Award winner, Brock Bowers had another huge performance. Bowers finished the contest with eight catches to go along with 157 yards with the game winning 40-yard touchdown reception.

The last two national championships, the Bulldogs were led by quarterback Stetson Bennett III and now this year Carson Beck is the new QB1 in the “Classic City.”

Each game he’s has gotten better so why can’t Carson get the same grace Stetson received?

Carson is ranked ninth nationally and second in passing yards per game at 299.4. But the only thing is the offense is not scoring the ball through the air like they want to. But like the headline said, “DON’T Worry UGA Fans.”

We all know that the defense for the Bulldogs is the key component for the program with tough, physical, disciplined players on that side of the ball. Yes, they gave up over 200 yards rushing against a tough Auburn team.

Head coach Kirby Smart and his defensive staff will make sure that Kentucky will not replicate that performance they put up against the Florida Gators, in Athens next Saturday.

The Kentucky Wildcats as a whole ran for 329 yards while giving up only 69 yards rushing. Most of

JJ Johnson's recipe for Collard Greens and Rice Soup

ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chef JJ Johnson created this soup so that he could incorporate some of the most basic ingredients he loves in one pot. Potlikker is the term for the juice left from cooking seasoned collard greens, and that's what he used here to build the broth. Revered in Southern cooking, potlikker is super-flavorful and packed with vitamins and minerals. It was originally eaten for its nutritional value by enslaved people on Southern plantations, and to this day some people drink it straight. The paprika adds a hint of smokiness, and finishing it with sherry vinegar gives the soup a bit of tang. You can find bunches of collard greens at the grocery store or farmers' market, or buy it pre-cut in a bag to make this simple recipe even quicker. After you add the collards and rice, the soup becomes thicker and less brothy. Any leftovers freeze well for future meals.

COLLARD GREENS AND RICE SOUP

Active Cook Time: 50 minutes

Serves: 4

INGREDIENTS

- 1/4 cup extra-virgin olive oil
- 1 medium white onion, finely chopped
- 2 large carrots, finely chopped
- 2 stalks celery, finely chopped
- 2 tablespoons tomato paste
- 1 tablespoon garlic, minced
- 2 tablespoons smoked paprika
- 1 teaspoon ground coriander
- 1 teaspoon ground cumin

- 5 cups trimmed and sliced collard greens or one 12-ounce bag pre-cut collard greens
 - 6 cups chicken stock
 - 2 teaspoons kosher salt (preferably Diamond Crystal), plus more to taste
 - 3 cups cooked long-grain white rice
 - 1/4 cup chopped fresh Italian parsley
 - 1 tablespoon sherry vinegar
 - Chili oil, for serving
 - Sour cream, for serving
- #### DIRECTIONS
1. Add the olive oil to a large pot set over medium heat. Add the onion, carrots, and celery and sauté until

- golden, about 5 minutes. Stir in the tomato paste and garlic and cook for another 2 minutes, until the tomato paste has darkened slightly.
 2. Add the paprika, coriander, and cumin and cook, stirring, for 2 minutes, or until fragrant. Add the collard greens, chicken stock, and salt and bring to a boil, then reduce the heat, cover, and simmer, stirring occasionally, for about 30 minutes. The collard greens should be tender to the bite.
 3. Add the rice, parsley, and sherry vinegar, stir well, and season with salt to taste. Simmer until the rice is heated through, 2 to 3 minutes.
 4. Serve the soup in individual bowls, topped with chili oil and sour cream.

Ke Huy Quan,
Wunmi Mosaku, Tom
Hiddleston in "Loki"

Beyond time and space: 'Loki' returns with uncontrollable powers

We've all done the time warp and explored the multiverse, but it's high time to sort out the timeline. A brand-new season of "Loki" premieres Friday, Oct. 6, on Disney+. Tom Hiddleston ("The Essex Serpent") returns as the God of Mischief, everyone's favorite troublemaker, Loki, who has developed a mysterious problem this season.

Owen Wilson ("Haunted Mansion," 2023) is back as Mobius M. Mobius, the Time Variance Authority agent tasked with helping Loki right his wrongs across the multiverse. The first season of "Loki" saw the Norse God meet his match in an alternate version of himself. Sophia Di Martino ("The Electrical Life of Louis Wain," 2021) is Sylvie, a variant of Loki who interrupts the Sacred Timeline. After coming together to set things right across space and time, Loki returned to what he thought would be the TVA headquarters he left before his mission, but something still wasn't right.

In the official trailer for the upcoming season, Mobius brings Loki to a repair shop of sorts, manned by TVA repair guy OB, portrayed by Ke Huy Quan ("American Born Chinese"). Before the pair have time to explain what's brought them there, Loki suddenly, uncontrollably disappears in a timeslip, leaving Mobius looking to OB for an answer. "It's impossible to timeslip in the TVA," is all he can say, though they just watched it happen.

"Loki" executive producer Kevin Wright told Entertainment Weekly in September that "[OB's] job is basically every piece of tech, every computer, every thing that is running at the TVA. ... He either designed it or he fixes it and keeps it running." Having recently picked up an Academy Award for Best Supporting Actor in 2022's "Everything Everywhere All At Once," Quan is well suited to help repair another multiverse.

While Quan's character is the latest to join Loki's crew as he chases chaos across the multiverse, several cast members return for the new season, including Gugu Mbatha-Raw ("Surface") as Ravonna Renslayer, a judge in the TVA who oversees Loki's case. Literally backing up Loki at one point in the season's trailer alongside Mobius, Sylvie and OB is Wunmi Mosaku ("We Own This City") as Hunter B-15. Eugene Cordero ("Star Trek: Lower Decks") returns as Hunter K-5E.

The upcoming seasons also star Neil Ellice ("Halo 4: Forward Unto Dawn") as Hunter D-90, Jonathan Majors ("Creed III," 2023) as He Who Remains and Tara Strong ("Teen Titans Go!") as the voice of Miss Minutes. Rafael Casal ("Blindspotting"), Kate Dickie ("Annika") and Liz Carr ("Silent Witness") all join the cast this season in unnamed roles.

Odd couple Mobius and Loki unsurprisingly have different approaches to their world-saving mission spanning space and time. While the former admits in the "Loki" teaser trailer that he prefers his "slow, deliberate, cerebral approach" honed by years in the bureaucracy of the TVA, while the Norse god is "a man of action, which is fine." Unconvincing, given Loki is the source of the destruction that they are trying to stave off.

While Disney has remained characteristically tight-lipped about the new season of "Loki" ahead of its premiere, Mbatha-Raw promised in a December 2022 interview with Entertainment Tonight that fans "are gonna be in for a real treat because the show is bolder and more surreal." She added that the upcoming season "goes to some bigger, bolder places than Season 1, which is really exciting." Wright promised something similar in his September EW interview, saying, "We made a weird show [in Season 1], and people responded to how weird it was ... so, we wanted to push it further."

“Phantom of the Rue Morgue”

BEST EDGAR ALLAN POE-INSPIRED MOVIES

“The Tell-Tale Heart” (1953): A real-rarity, this animated, Oscar-nominated version of Poe’s short story about a haunted killer is narrated by James Mason, runs less than 10 minutes ... and was given an “X” rating by British film censors.

“Phantom of the Rue Morgue” (1954): The success of “House of Wax” the previous year made Warner Bros. eager to release another thriller in 3D, and Poe’s “The Murders in the Rue Morgue” became the source of this melodrama starring Karl Malden as an experiment-immersed professor.

“House of Usher” (1960): “B”-movie legend Roger Corman began a series of Poe-inspired films for American International Pictures by casting genre staple Vincent Price as a member of the allegedly cursed Usher family who tries to ward off a would-be in-law (Mark Damon). A new version of “The Fall of the House of Usher” starts streaming Thursday, Oct. 12, on Netflix.

“The Pit and the Pendulum” (1961): Maybe the best of the Corman-made Poe adaptations, this chiller boasts one of Price’s most memorable performances as the troubled owner of a castle where his brother-in-law (John Kerr) gets too inquisitive for his own good.

“The Raven” (1963): Corman teamed Price with two other horror-movie legends — Boris Karloff and Peter Lorre — in this saga of battling sorcerers, one of whom (Lorre) has been transformed into the title bird. Notable in the supporting cast: Jack Nicholson as Lorre’s son.

“The Haunted Palace” (1963): Price worked with Corman again in this saga of the title palace, with the title supplied by Poe, though the source story actually was written by H.P. Lovecraft.

“The Masque of the Red Death” (1964): While a plague threatens his village, a prince (a Corman-directed Price, yet again) maintains sanctuary in his castle ... but the threat finds him anyway.

“The Oblong Box” (1969): Price stars again, along with fellow horror great Christopher Lee, in the story of a man who has his brother (Alister Williamson) put into a death trance and confined to a coffin (or “oblong box”).

“Murders in the Rue Morgue” (1971): The Poe tale got a big revision here, in a screenplay about an acting troupe performing the story — and becoming murder targets themselves.

“Two Evil Eyes” (1990): Genre veterans Dario Argento and George A. Romero each directed one of the two Poe-inspired stories combined in this feature, featuring Adrienne Barbeau and Harvey Keitel.

“The Raven” (2012): John Cusack plays Poe himself in a story that really links to the title tale in name only, as it follows the author through the last days of his life while he chases a serial killer who has kidnapped Poe’s true love (Alice Eve) and is using elements of the writer’s works to taunt him.

“Goosebumps” - Season 1 (Oct. 13)

Inspired by R.L. Stine's bestselling book series, this spooky, family-friendly series follows a group of five high schoolers as they embark on a shadowy and twisted journey to investigate the tragic passing three decades earlier of a teen named Harold Biddle (Ben Cockell) — while also unearthing dark secrets from their parents' past. Justin Long, Rachael Harris, Zack Morris, Isa Briones, Miles McKenna, Ana Yi Puig and Will Price star.

“Wolf Like Me” - Season 2 (Peacock — Oct. 19, Season Premiere)

This series' second season follows Mary (Isla Fisher) and Gary (Josh Gad) as they leap into the next phase of their relationship and face their biggest challenge yet: pregnancy. As much as they try to have a 'normal' pregnancy, it seems impossible with so many questions looming over them. When Mary's former professor, Anton (Edgar Ramirez), suddenly reappears in her life, new secrets from Mary's past are revealed.

David Eigenberg's career is still on 'Fire'

Q: Was David Eigenberg still playing Steve on "Sex and the City" when he started working on "Chicago Fire"? – Melanie Paul, Tacoma, Wash.

A: In a manner of speaking. "Sex and the City" ended its original six-season HBO run in 2004, with the movie sequels released in 2008 and 2010, and "Chicago Fire" premiered on NBC in 2012. However, Eigenberg has returned on a recurring basis as Steve Brady on Max's "Sex and the City" continuation series "And Just Like That ...," with the character's relationship with Miranda Hobbes (Cynthia Nixon) continuing to endure twists and turns. The nature of both "Chicago Fire" and "And Just Like That ..." has facilitated Eigenberg being able to do both shows, since they don't necessarily need all cast members present at any given time. That will be even more the case when "Chicago Fire's" next season begins, since as a cost-containment measure, all of the Dick Wolf-produced NBC shows will be reducing the number of episodes in which each of the principal cast members appear (in most cases). That would seem to portend less screen time on "Chicago Fire" for Eigenberg overall, though he'll likely be more prominent in many episodes in which he is seen.

Q: I thought Sarah Drew's movie "How She Caught a Killer" was supposed to be on in August. Why was it delayed? – Deanne Cramer, via e-mail

A: Presumably, Lifetime had a number of reasons for postponing the film, which was moved to mid-September. The "Grey's Anatomy" and "Everwood" alum has a loyal following, and moving the film closer to the start of the traditional television season may have been deemed a good decision in terms of also using it as a platform to advertise other Lifetime projects.

Also, Drew had another cable movie debuting around the same time – "Guiding Emily," which she made for Hallmark Movies & Mysteries, and disclosed after the original date for "Killer" (on which Drew also served as an executive producer) was announced – so there likely was discussion of where to put "Killer" in relation to that. As it turned out, there was only one week between the films when they finally were televised.
