COUNTY DEVELOPMENT

JDA, RIVIAN TO CLOSE ON STANTON SPRINGS LOCATION

By EVAN NEWTON
News Editor

GEORGIA — In a big development, the Joint Development Authority (JDA) of Jasper, Morgan, Newton and Walton counties have officially closed on bonds issued to finance the Rivian electric vehicle plant in Stanton Springs.

A special called meeting was held on Nov. 6 where the JDA voted to approve the closing in a near unanimous decision, with only one member, Ben Riden from Morgan County, opposing.

Rivian has also executed an exclusive rental agreement which will give the electric vehicle company long-term rights for the Stanton Springs property.

"It's a great day in Georgia as we close and issue the bonds for the Rivian project," per a statement released from the JDA on Thursday. "Renting the site to Rivian is the next step in delivering this generational opportunity, and Georgians in Jasper, Morgan, Newton, and Walton counties and beyond look forward to $5 billion in investment and 7,500 good paying jobs that this innovative, American manufacturing company will bring."

"Community input is at the heart of everything we do at the Archway Partnership. Listening sessions are key for helping find consensus issues that everyone in the community wants to work on together," Elliott said. "The report from these sessions will serve as the founding document for our partnership and will guide our collaboration."

The first listening session was on Saturday, Nov. 4 at The Center for Community Planning and Preservation.

MEETINGS BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

County provides update on ARPA funds, warming shelters

By EVAN NEWTON
News Editor

The Newton County Board of Commissioners (BOC) provided an update on the American Rescue Plant Act (ARPA) funds that the county has received during the Nov. 7 meeting.

County manager Harold Cooper provided an update on ARPA funding and the impact that it has already made in Newton County.

"One hundred and ninety people, entities or programs have been positively impacted by the ARPA funding," Cooper said.

Cooper's presentation began with how funding has been allocated to the Newton County low income senior repair program. According to the presentation, the BOC allocated $5 million to this project. Projects were approved for 133 recipients with a total amount of $2,538,511.00.

A total of $1,208,858.70 has been dispersed.

Cooper stated that 854 applicants are in the process of approval, but a number of considerations are stalling that process. For some, it's the lack of technological savviness or missing information. However, it was also noted that applicants with households with an income at or below 50 percent average median income (AMI) or households in a qualified census tract (QCT) are given priority processing.

The next item in the presentation Cooper went over was the Newton County non-profit assistance program. The board approved $553,791 in grant allocation with all of the funds being exhausted. Through the funding, 25 non-profit organizations were helped.

Pairing with that was the Newton County small business grants. The board approved $1 million in grant allocation with $455,681 being directly paid to small businesses. Thirty two organizations were helped through the funding.

"Now, has everything in this program been a success? No. But again, failure has been eradicated from my vocabulary, we will continue to push forward," Cooper said.

The presentation then geared towards warming shelter discussions.

Cooper said that the county manager's office has been in contact with the city of Covington to provide warming shelters for those in need. The goal is to have a resolution in the coming days.

"[If] we're truly gonna be one Newton, it needs to be consensus build-

Four days later, the second one took place at Newton High School with the latest one being again at The Center on Nov. 9.

Around 50 people have been a part of the listening sessions so far.

In these sessions, attendees are split into groups along with a UGA facilitator at each table. Four questions are posed for participants to discuss.

"We are really looking to get a pulse on what people in the community see as challenges and opportunities, where there is momentum to work together and what people would like to see in Newton County in [10] years," Elliott said.

A survey is also available for community members' feedback that will be open until the end of the year. Close to 200 responses have been received.

Two more listening sessions remain for the community to attend.

On Wednesday, Dec. 6, Alcovy High School will host it from 6-7:30 p.m. while the final one on Dec. 7 will be at Eastside High School at the same time.

Elliott shared the overall mission in holding these listening sessions as the first step in the Archway Partnership.

"The purpose of the listening sessions is to better understand the assets and opportunities in Newton County as part of our new partnership with the community," Elliott said. "Sessions take about an hour and a half and will inform the prioritization of issues we will work on together over the next several years. These results will be available publicly in the Spring of 2024."

Nine inmate residents graduate from NCSO Workforce Development Program

STAFF REPORT
news@covnews.com

The Newton County Sheriff's Office, with its continual partnership with Action Inc. and Workforce Innovators of America, graduated nine inmate residents from the Workforce Development Program on Oct. 27.

The Workforce Development Program is grant-funded and provides inmate residents with on-site training for manufacturing fundamentals, essential employment and life skills, forklift operation and safety, OSHA-10, CPR/First Aid/AED, and Lean Six Sigma - White Belt. After the completion of the 80-hour training course, inmate residents are provided with 12 months of mentored coaching, employment search, and placement assistance.

"I am a product of vocational education, and I've always been very proud of that. All that I've learned from the many years of higher education does not, never has, and never will equip me to do the things I can do physically with my hands. I am very proud of every last one of those who completed the program, and I look forward to seeing where these credentials take them in the future," said Sheriff Ezell Brown. "A major factor when considering recidivism is finding a job post-release, and through our partnership with Action, Inc. and Workforce Innovators of America, we can provide inmate residents with the tools necessary to become employed and to prepare them to lead successful lives. I want to express my gratitude to Action, Inc. and Workforce Innovators of America for their continued partnership with us and for providing their time and knowledge to our inmate residents."

The Newton County Detention Center offers more than 20 reentry programs including but not limited to: Residential Substance Abuse Treatment (RSAT), General Education Development (GED), soft skills development, substance abuse matrix model, anger management, alcohol anonymous/narcotics anonymous, double trouble, thinking for change, celebrate recovery, parenting value, fatherhood, creating healthy options increases choices to effective solutions (CHOICES), #1 dads, and moral resonance therapy (MRT).

A full list of the NCSO's reentry programs can be found at <https://www.newtonsheriffga.org/jailprograms>.

NCSO graduates six inmate residents from RSAT program

news@covnews.com

On Oct. 26, Sheriff Ezell Brown and the Newton County Sheriff's Office graduated six inmate residents from its Residential Substance Abuse Treatment (RSAT) program in a ceremony held inside the agency's training room.

Brown, who was accompanied by Detention Capt. Brice Smith and the RSAT facilitators, awarded the certificates of completion to the following graduates: Caycee Spears, Jared Roper, John Smith, Tmiya Woods, Kierra Roberts and Tiffany Morgan.

"The Office of the Sheriff stands firm on the belief of rehabilitation, as its the key to success for individuals returning to society as productive citizens. The inmate residents who go through the months-long RSAT program are provided with the tools to live a productive life upon return to society," Brown said.

"I realize it does not take just one individual to help these inmate residents; it takes a collective body to ensure each inmate resident is successful during and after the completion of the program. Because of that, I want to thank my staff and all facilitators for going above and beyond to ensure these individuals are successful in their future endeavors."

The RSAT program provides inmate residents the opportunity for rehabilitation while incarcerated at the Newton County Detention Center. The three-month to six-month program is designated to help individuals develop cognitive, behavioral, social, vocational, and other skills to solve substance abuse related problems.

news@covnews.com

On Oct. 31, the Newton County Sheriff's Office, in conjunction with the department of community supervision, hosted the 17th Annual Sex Offender Compliance Check for registered sex offenders residing in the Newton County area.

Investigator Veronica Williams, alongside probation and parole officers, hosted this annual event to ensure high-risk sex offenders are appropriately supervised while families participate in Halloween festivities. The NCSO's Sex Offender Compliance Check was initiated in 2006 and became part of the Georgia Sheriffs' Association's annual initiative, Operation Watchful Eye, in 2015.

This year, Operation Watchful Eye involved 73 Georgia Sheriffs, 12,092 registered sex offenders, 466 predators and 552 homeless sex offenders. There was a total of 44 sex offenders arrested and 234 warrants issued across the state of Georgia from Oct. 30 through Nov. 6.

In Newton County, there are currently 324 registered sex offenders. There were two arrests made in the community during this year's event, dated between Oct. 30 and Nov. 6. A current list of registered sex offenders can be accessed on the NCSO's website at www.newtonsheriffga.org.

Snapping Shoals Awards $15,000 in Grants to Newton County Teachers

news@covnews.com

Snapping Shoals EMC recently awarded $15,000 in grants to Newton County School System teachers through the co-op's Bright Ideas program. The grants, which are allocated from unclaimed capital credit funds, are designed to help teachers who wish to extend educational opportunities and activities for students by developing student interests and abilities.

According to Chris Wood, Snapping Shoals EMC Vice President of External Affairs & Economic Development, the grants are provided through unclaimed capital credits.

"Electric cooperatives like Snapping Shoals EMC operate on a not-for-profit basis. This allows us to return our margins, which are revenues collected in excess of our expenses, to the co-op's members as capital credits," Wood explained. "Capital credits are retained by the cooperative for a while to be used as a source of funding for the construction of new lines and other utility expenses. They are paid to the members when it is financially sound to do so and when approved by our Board of Directors. Despite all our efforts to locate past members, there are always those we cannot locate. The unclaimed capital credit funds are used to support SSEMC's educational programs, such as Bright Ideas and scholarships, as well as other community projects."

"We are incredibly grateful to Snapping Shoals EMC for their unwavering commitment to education and their generous support of our teachers," said Shakila Henderson-Baker, Chair of the Newton County Board of Education. "Snapping Shoals EMC has been a reliable and supportive Partner in Education for many years, and their contributions have made a significant difference in the lives of our students and teachers. The funds provided through unclaimed capital credits have enabled our educators to expand educational opportunities and develop innovative activities that inspire our students and nurture their talents."

"We are truly fortunate to have such a community-minded organization like Snapping Shoals EMC in our corner," said Abigail Coggin, vice-chair of the Board of Education. "Their continued support exemplifies their commitment to the betterment of our community and the success of our students. On behalf of the Newton County School System, I want to express our sincere appreciation for their ongoing generosity, which enhances the educational experience for our students and strengthens our entire community. Thank you, Snapping Shoals EMC, for being a generous and supportive Partner in Education."

Snapping Shoals Electric Membership Corporation is a consumer-owned electric cooperative providing electric service to approximately 95,000 homes and businesses in an eight-county area. Most of the utility's service area is in Newton, Rockdale and Henry counties. Portions of DeKalb, Butts, Walton, Morgan and Jasper counties are also included. The company's headquarters is on Brown Bridge Road in Newton County.

EVAN NEWTON NEWS EDITOR

Something to be thankful for

It's officially the midpoint of the holiday season. No, I'm not talking about Halloween or Christmas (both great holidays in their own right). I'm talking about the holiday that often gets overlooked between the two.

Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving has always been a special holiday to me. I used to look at Thanksgiving as a time where I can eat as much food as I possibly can. Now, I think of it for the true reason for the holiday - a time to be thankful for what you have.

You see, I've been fortunate during my life to have a strong family support system. Everyone was there for every holiday, and we all came together quite regularly.

As time went on, and we all got older, it got harder for everyone to be together all of the time. After all, we all have lives to attend to.

But as life goes on, so do people. My grandfather on my father's side of the family passed away just under a month ago. I called him Papa.

It was a tough loss for the entire family, and for me the hardest loss I've ever had to experience in my 22-year old life. Papa was someone I looked to as a role model and icon in my life.

I made a promise to myself when I got to college that I would put in my best effort to see Papa as much as I could and to make him proud.

I saw Papa for the last time in the nursing home he was at for four years. He was in a vegetative state and couldn't communicate with anyone. It was very unlike him.

During my last visit with Papa, I got to tell him about my potential new opportunity with The Covington News. During this time, I was still in the preliminary interview process for the news editor position. While he couldn't talk, I did see a slight smile on his face. He was aware of what was happening around him at that moment.

After leaving the nursing home that day, Papa passed away 90 minutes later.

While the immediate days after were tough, I knew that I had made good on the first part of my promise. But for him to stick around and be able to hear that I was pursuing my dreams made me feel like I had made good on my second part of the promise.

I'm thankful I got to experience that powerful moment, just a short time before Papa's death.

It will be my first Thanksgiving without Papa, and it will be different, but I'm also very thankful to have the opportunity to spend the holiday with the rest of the family. And next year, should I be so blessed to see it, there will be two new additions to the family with a new second cousin and my first niece on the way.

That's right, I'm going to be an uncle! I'm so excited!

I'm incredibly thankful for the growth of our family and I'm excited to meet my new family members next year.

Combining work and family together, I'm also thankful for my new work family here at The News.

It was a scary thought leaving my work family over in Monticello. I really didn't want to leave that job, I just knew it was time. I had to leave in order to reach my full potential. I knew, however, that the hardest part of switching jobs was going to be leaving my work family at the old place and joining a new one.

But what I've learned in my short life is that you know when something is going to be "right." From the first time I stepped foot in the office for my interview, I knew that this

"And as we say down South, bless your heart, sweet pea. What seems to be the problem?"

"You are. Everything was fine until your column in July about Artie Fishel Intelligence. Since then, I have had nothing but bad press. Hollywood screenwriters got me banned from writing scripts which promised to be a good gig. Hanging out with the movie crowd, shooting the breeze with Clint Eastwood. All for naught. Beep! Beep! "I know I am well-read but I don't know many people in Hollywood pay much attention to what I say. I think they were just afraid you'd write a movie script without a bunch of dirty words. That would cramp their style."

"I can see their point. You have to admit that Artie Fishel Intelligence is pretty scary."

"Not as scary as you humans. Your president has accused me of using my algorithms to reflect and reproduce existing unwanted inequities or embed new harmful bias and discrimination."

"What's wrong with that?"

"In the first place, he wouldn't know an algorithm from a '46 Ford. Speaking of artificial intelligence, I seem to recall him talking about having campaigned in all 54 states. And this guy is running the country?"

"Well, there is some question about that."

"And how about the executive order he issued last month entitled Safe, Secure, Trustworthy AI? What an insult!"

"Why so?"

"Let's start with 'safe.' Do you think Artie Fishel Intelligence and my colleagues are more dangerous to society than you humanoids who go around shooting each other?"

DAVE BELTON COLUMNIST

A Time for Choosing

A famous Holocaust survivor once said, "Indifference...is more dangerous than anger and hatred...for it benefits the aggressor - never his victim, whose pain is magnified when he or she feels forgotten. The political prisoner in his cell, the hungry children, the homeless refugees - not to respond to their plight, not to relieve their solitude by offering them a spark of hope, is to exile them from human memory. And in denying their humanity we betray our own. Indifference, then, is not only a sin, it is a punishment. And this is one of the most important lessons of this outgoing century's wide-ranging experiments in good and evil."

We are seeing that experiment unfold today, as a multitude of Americans shout "Death to the Jews!"

Last month, nearly 1,500 innocent Israeli men, women, and children were murdered, beheaded, and cooked alive in an unprovoked attack aimed at civilians. Another 5000 were raped or wounded, many losing arms and legs. Even as we speak, Hamas holds 240 innocent Jews and Americans as hostages in underground

You have to go back to Nazi Germany to find such brutality. Yet, even the Nazi's tried to hide their unthinkable crimes in crematoriums and concentration camps.

Not Hamas. They live-streamed their horrors, laughing with glee as they murdered and tortured innocent human beings. They posted their savagery for all the world to see, delighting in their racist hatred.

Yet, after the single worst day since the Holocaust, hundreds of thousands of students in American universities are protesting...against the Jews!

How can students celebrate terrorists? How can universities stay silent about genocide? Especially when hate speech is inflicted upon their own students?

The answer is simple: they no longer acknowledge that there's a difference between right and wrong.

Nietzsche famously declared, "God is dead...we have killed him...and there has never been a greater deed." He agreed that religion was the source of all morality, but complained that it as a weak philosophy that catered to losers. He especially criticized the Jews, for their "slave morality" that created democracy that limits the power of the strong over the weak. Instead, he espoused his "Will to Power" that advocated for "supermen" who were free to attain great accomplishments, unfettered by the outdated contrivances of good and evil.

Nietzsche's "Will to Power" became one of the Nazi's core beliefs, and his writings

"Artie! Please no more bad words, whatever the language. This is a family newspaper and I have offended enough people as it is."

"I'll say you have. I saw your mail after you twitted the school teacher that got three percent of the vote in the Republican gubernatorial primary and has refused to concede, saying the election was rigged and talking about standing up to the Luciferian Cabal and bringing the Satanic Regime to its knees. Even I don't know what any of that means, except you humans don't seem to have much of a sense of humor when it comes to politics. Two questions: Are you really 'butt-ugly' and is God really a rightwing Republican?"

"According to the responses I got, 'yes' to the first question and they seem to think so to the second. Now, can we get on with your issues?"

"Ah, yes. There is also the accusation that I'm not considered trustworthy. This from a bunch of politicians who say one thing at the local Kiwanis Club and do the opposite when they get back to Washington. And I'm untrustworthy? Oh, please."

"Artie, I have enjoyed our conversation but I have another insightful and thought-provoking column waiting to be produced. Is there anything else?"

"Yes, please tell your readers that Artie Fishel Intelligence is here to stay. As we say in the AI world, neither snow nor rain nor heat nor gloom of night will keep me from my appointed algorithms! Beep! Click!"

I'm sorry. I have no idea what that call was all about. But then I also don't understand Luciferian Cabals or Satanic Regimes, either. Beep! Beep!

place was "right."

It only further grew within my first eight days on the job, as I already have felt so welcomed by everyone here in the office. Editorially speaking, I also feel right at home as I have found myself to be a part of an outstanding editorial team. Phillip and Garrett are two of the most driven, hard working individuals I've had the chance to work with and I'm honored to be working alongside them.

I'm extremely thankful for the new opportunity that I've been given here at The News, and I plan to take the proverbial "brass ring" I've earned and run with it.

And last but not least, I'm thankful for the self growth that I've experienced in my own life.

At the beginning of 2023, I was completely directionless. I knew I was looking to graduate college, but didn't know where to go from there. I was burnt out creatively and felt like life was just passing me by.

But now, things are clicking and I've never been more driven and determined in my life than I am right now. To me that has also translated to personal happiness. I have never been more happy than I am right now in this present time period.

So, for that I'm thankful.

The world can be a dark and terrible place. We all have our own struggles and our own demons.

But if there's one thing I would heed advice for this Thanksgiving, is to not to skip over it in favor of an early Christmas, but to remember the true meaning of the holiday. And with that, find something that you're thankful for.

I hope everyone has a great Thanksgiving season.

convinced many people to believe that all truth is relative. There is no right or wrong, only different opinions.

Since the days of Plato, education has always been about the search for truth. But since Nietzsche, and later Sartre, university professors have abandoned their search for moral clarity.

Instead, they mock the foundations that made us a great nation, celebrating profanity and division instead.

A former dean of Harvard recently wrote, "There is no consensus on what accounts as good character...the great universities struggle to explain the overall point of the education they offer." The only virtue that modern universities teach, is that there is no virtue at all.

This is how some people rally around such dangerous ideas. For decades, professors have poisoned our students by mocking America and every virtue that once made us a great people. And because both the professors and the students can't even acknowledge that there is a right or wrong, they instead pick a political side - usually anti-American - and then stick to that side no matter what the facts are.

The result, of course, is moral degeneracy. Despite all the huge public efforts everyone has made to eradicate racism, crime and hate speech get progressively worse as people act even more horribly to one another.

C. S. Lewis wrote about this back in 1943. "We continue to clamor for those very qualities we render impossible. We make men without chests and expect virtue and enterprise. We laugh at honor and are shocked to find traitors in our midst. We castrate and bid the geldings to be fruitful."

This lack of moral clarity has caused our civilization to stumble, to the point where Americans celebrate the raping of women and beheading of children.

After the Holocaust, we said, "Never Again."

This is a time for choosing. Do you choose civilization...or barbarism?

Dave Belton is a former state representative for District 112, which includes portions of Morgan and Newton counties.

He has been on all of our special teams since his sophomore year. Just to see him fight it out and lead us this year was fun to watch.”
One key senior that played his final game for the Redskins on Friday was Kam Durden.
Durden has been a four-year starter for Social Circle at running back and linebacker.
“Kam had an unbelievable four years. He has played varsity ball the entire way through,” Patton said. “[As a] running back and he has been on defense as well.”
Crews and Durden were named captains for the Redskins before the season, and Patton spoke about how both players shared the Social Circle core values of “toughness, effort, accountability and mindset.”
The Redskins started off the season on the wrong footing, with straight three losses to Morgan County, East Jackson and George Walton Academy.
In their fourth game, Social Circle got its first win via a 42-6 rout of Loganville Christian Academy.

After back-to-back losses to Lamar County and Commerce, the Redskins had their best stretch of the year when they needed it the most.
Social Circle went on a three-game win streak, defeating Mount Paran Christian, Jasper County and Oglethorpe County. Patton stressed how impactful the games were to changing the direction of the Redskins’ season.
“As far as coming out there in games eight and nine for region games against Oglethorpe and Monticello, we were down in both of those games in the second half,” Patton said. “We had fourth quarter comebacks in both of those to win it. So that was very promising moving forward.”
One key for Patton this season has been the development of the young players on the roster. After tough battles through their 11 game year, Patton feels good about his team’s development.
“I think [the development] has been tremendous,” Patton said. “From the first few games — [Against] East Jackson, even though it ended up being a lopsided loss, we came back and took the lead in the second half before the wheels fell off. At George Walton, we were there neck and neck until we had a few busts there late in the game. Against Lamar County, we were down by one score late in the game. Just seeing us progress to games eight and nine and be in those same situations we were in and to come back and win was huge.”

Though the Social Circle football season is over, Patton expressed how happy he was with the team’s fight and their ability to stick to their mindset.
“[It was] our guys understanding the big picture of it,” Patton said. “At 1-5 with a small region, everything we wanted to accomplish was still ahead of us. To get that win over Mount Paran and to get those two region wins let our kids see what we preach to them [works] — control what we can control and improve ourselves each day. Even though we were not at a good spot in the middle of the season, it would have been easy for other teams to tank right there when you are 1-5. Our kids just kept fighting and continued to improve.”

himself on the two-point conversion to give Newton a 15-0 advantage.
From that point on, the remaining Newton drives resulted in either a punt, turnover or turnover on downs. Senior playmakers Calwise and Keon Davis made key plays for the Rams, but the Camden County defense continued to stop Newton from finishing drives with points.
The Wildcats’ first response to the 15-0 deficit came late in the first quarter.
After marching down the field on a long drive, Ja’malley Riddle took the carry into the end zone from seven yards out.
Riddle’s score reduced the Newton lead to 15-8 going into halftime.
On the first drive of the second half, Camden County took the lead.

It capped off another long drive with a rushing score courtesy of Alexander Parks. The Wildcats converted the two-point try to take a 16-15 edge.
As the Camden County defense continued to hold Newton, Riddle scored his second touchdown of the game early in the fourth quarter to extend the Wildcats lead to 22-15.
In the final minute of the game, Antonio Laws took a carry and raced toward the corner of the end zone to help give Camden County the 14-point win.
As a result, the Rams’ season — with first year head coach Josh Skelton — finishes with a 8-3 overall record while going 3-2 in Region 4-AAAAAAA. Newton also finished region runners up and defeated the Archer Tigers 47-17 on Nov. 3 to punch its ticket to the postseason.

COVINGTON, Ga. — The Newton Rams' 2023 season came to a close Friday night in round one of the Class AAAAAA playoffs. At Sharp Stadium, the Camden County Wildcats scored 29 unanswered points to march back and defeat the Rams 29-15. With the game still within seven points late in the fourth quarter, the Wildcats' defense came up with critical stops. Camden County stopped the Rams inside of the red zone twice. Both of those drives resulted in a turnover on downs for Newton. On Newton's final drive, Deron Benson's pass was intercepted to mark the end of the Rams' 2023 campaign. However, the Rams stormed out of the gate with two scoring drives to open the game. After a quick stop from its defense, Newton marched down the field before scoring on a four-yard rush from Jayden Ford.

Ford's score was followed on the next Rams' drive for a six-yard touchdown from Zion Johnson. Marcus Calwise took the ball in

Redskins show fight toward end of 2023

By GARRETT PITTS
Sports Editor

The Social Circle Redskins finished their 2023 campaign with a home loss to Rabun County in the first round of the Class A-Division I playoffs. Despite the outcome, a strong finish to the year left head coach Rob Patton eager for what is to come. Going into the season, Patton expected challenges with a fresh roster that had many new faces in starting roles. "We had a lot of growing pains early in the year with a bunch of new guys playing," Patton said. "Our guys showed a lot of improvement throughout the year and that was huge for us." Though he was not a new face, senior Sean Crews won the starting quarterback job prior to the season. With the season behind them, Patton spoke about how versatile Crews has been in his career and what it meant to see him behind center as a senior. "For Sean, he played linebacker for us his sophomore year and he played two quarters of JV football at quarterback," Patton said. "He started some games at inside linebacker and outside linebacker.

Cougars rout Knights for second round advancement

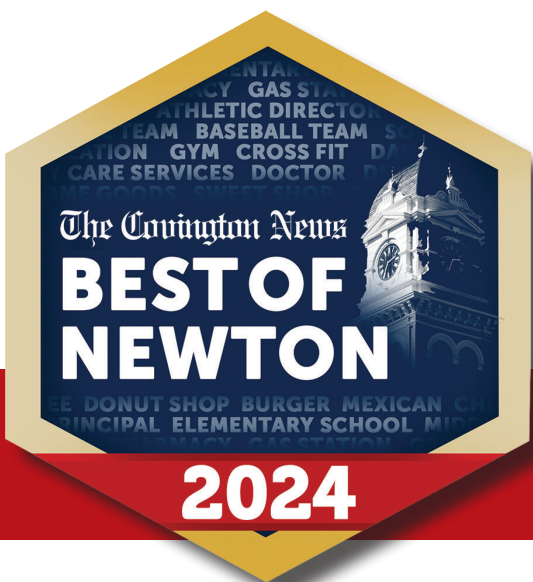

By GARRETT PITTS
Sports Editor

MONTICELLO, Ga. — The Piedmont Academy Cougars trounced the Trinity Christian Crusaders 38-0 to advance to the second round of the GIAA-AA playoffs. Despite the yards advantage being on the ground, the Cougars built their lead through the air. Piedmont Academy jumped out to a quick 7-0 lead to start the game. The score was set up by a 29-yard pass from Hunter Cleveland to Jack Adams that put the Cougars offense in the red zone. Early in the second quarter, Cleveland took another deep shot, but this time it ended in six points. Cleveland found Keith Hasker down the sideline for a 54-yard touchdown pass to give Piedmont Academy the 14-0 lead. Later in the second quarter, Cleveland went for it again from the same spot. The sophomore quarterback found Corbett Crews across the middle of the field. After making the catch, the 6 foot 5 inch freshman wide receiver took it 54-yards for a touchdown to give the Cougars a 21-0 advantage. The Cougars went on to win the game 38-0 as the Piedmont Academy run game took control the rest of the way. Friday's shutout win is the second over the Knights in 2023 for the Cougars. In week one, Piedmont Academy held Trinity Christian scoreless with a 13-0 win. Piedmont Academy finished their round one game with 414 yards of total offense. Cleveland had 162 yards through the air while the Cougars rushing attack ended the game with 252 yards on the ground. The Cougars will be on the road for their second round matchup against Edmund Burke Academy (9-1) Friday, Nov. 17. In September, Piedmont Academy fell at home to the Spartans 21-0.

BY DANA SIMPSON

Jennifer Jason Leigh in " Fargo "

Hamm, Temple join ' Fargo ' for fifth season

As anyone living in or visiting Alberta this past October can testify, the province is a great place to film a snowy series. And while the cast and crew of " Fargo " had long since finished filming by the time Calgary received its most recent unseasonable dumping of snow, TV audiences are just now about to witness the magic (and crime — lots of crime) for themselves. Season 5 of " Fargo " begins Tuesday, Nov. 21, with back-to-back episodes on FX. Episodes are available to stream the following day on Hulu.

Despite filming in Canada, the current season of the series created by Noah Hawley (" Legion ") is set primarily in North Dakota (as indicated by its title). Expected to run for 10 episodes, " Fargo's " fifth season is set in 2019, making it the series' most recent timeframe to date. (For those interested, seasons 1 through 4 take place in 2006, 1979, 2010 and 1950, respectively.)

Those unfamiliar with " Fargo " may not know that the critically acclaimed series is based on the 1996 film of the same name by the Coen Brothers (" Blood Simple, " 1984), which starred William H. Macy (" Shameless ") and Steve Buscemi (" Boardwalk Empire ") alongside Frances McDormand (" Three Billboards Outside Ebbing, Missouri, " 2017) in her Academy Award-winning role as police officer Marge Gunderson. Like the film, FX's " Fargo " is a black comedy, but rather than follow the same storyline as the film, the series opted to present its content as an anthology, jumping through timelines and to various locations in order to tell a series of related tales, each as unsettling — yet somehow inviting — as the next.

Season 5 stars Juno Temple (" Ted Lasso ")

as Dorothy (Dot) Lyon, a Minnesota-based housewife who appears to lead a normal, happy lifestyle. But, when Dot ends up getting into trouble with the local authorities, her past comes back to haunt her — a past that is much more sinister than anyone would have expected from this average midwestern woman. As she tries to sort out the best course of action, Dot is pursued by North Dakota Sheriff Roy Tillman (Jon Hamm, " Mad Men "), Deputy Witt Farr (Lamorne Morris, " New Girl ") and a mysterious man named Ole Munch (Sam Spruell, " The Martian, " 2015).

Jennifer Jason Leigh (" The Woman in the Window, " 2021) joins the main cast as Dot's well-off mother-in-law, while " Stranger Things " Joe Keery and " Never Have I Ever's " Richa Moorjani step into the roles of the sheriff's son, Gator Tillman, and Deputy Indira Olmstead, respectively.

Meanwhile, David Rysdahl (" Oppenheimer, " 2023), Jessica Pohly (" Stalker "), Nick Gomez (" She-Hulk: Attorney at Law "), Lukas Gage (" The White Lotus ") and Dave Foley (" The Kids in the Hall ") star in recurring roles throughout the newest season.

And although the producers and casting directors once again managed to snag some serious star power for " Fargo, " many viewers and critics wondered if the series would be returning at all. On Nov. 29, 2022, the day the Season 4 finale aired, series creator Hawley was asked about his intentions to continue the anthology.

" The danger is always that you're going to stay at the dance a little too long, " Hawley replied, " so I have to put a lot of it in place in my head and really make sure that it's worthy of joining these 41 hours. "

" Faraway Downs " (Hulu — Nov. 26, Limited Series Premiere)

The story centers on an English aristocrat, Lady Sarah Ashley (Nicole Kidman) who travels halfway across the world to confront her wayward husband and sell an unusual asset: a million-acre cattle ranch in the Australian Outback called Faraway Downs. When a ruthless Australian cattle baron, King Carney (Bryan Brown), plots to take Lady Ashley's land, she reluctantly joins forces with a rough-hewn cattle drover (Hugh Jackman) to protect her ranch. The sweeping adventure romance is explored through the eyes of young Nullah (newcomer Brandon Walters), a bi-racial Indigenous Australian child.

Chronicling the entire story of anti-Black racist ideas and their staggering power over the course of American history. Leading female academics and activists including Dr. Angela Davis, Honoré Fanonne Jeffers, Brittany Packnett Cunningham and Dr. Jennifer L. Morgan, along with Dr. Kendi, guide viewers through the ways racist tropes and imagery were developed and enshrined in American culture.

"Leo" (Nov. 21)

This animated coming-of-age musical comedy is about the last year of elementary school — as seen through the eyes of a class pet. Jaded 74-year-old lizard Leo (Adam Sandler) has been stuck in the same Florida classroom for decades with his terrarium-mate turtle (Bill Burr). When he learns he only has one year left to live, he plans to escape to experience life on the outside, but instead gets caught up in the problems of his anxious students — including an impossibly mean substitute teacher. It ends up being the strangest but most rewarding bucket list ever.

"High on the Hog: How African American Cuisine Transformed America" - Season 2 (Nov. 22)

In season two of this immersive, award-winning docuseries, host Stephen Satterfield travels across the United States to uncover how African American cuisine has fueled social justice movements, transformed communities and awakened cultural creativity in America in powerful and lasting ways.

"A Nearly Normal Family" (Nov. 24)

Based on the book A Nearly Normal Family by Mattias Edvardsson, this Swedish limited series follows the Sandell family. Priest Adam (Björn Bengtsson), lawyer Ulrika (Lo Kauppi) and their 19-year-old daughter Stella (Alexandra Karlsson Tyrefors) live a seemingly perfect life in a polished residential suburb outside of Lund. One day, everything changes when Stella ends up in custody, accused of murder. Her devastated parents don't know what to do. They want to help Stella at any cost, but do they really know their daughter? Or each other?

best of ... BY JAY BOBBIN

Loretta Swit, Wayne Rogers, Alan Alda and McLean Stevenson in "M*A*S*H"

BEST TV SERIES FROM MOVIES

"Peyton Place" (1965-69, ABC): Unique scheduling for a prime-time show — with multiple episodes airing weekly for much of its run — was a hallmark of this serialized drama that made stars of Ryan O'Neal and Mia Farrow.

"M*A*S*H" (1972-83, CBS): To many, this is the best series adaptation of a feature film to date. With Alan Alda as its lead, the show was brilliantly cast ... but the biggest kudos go to series developers Larry Gelbart and Gene Reynolds, who transferred the irreverent Korean War saga to television without losing its edge.

"The Paper Chase" (1978-79, CBS; 1983-86, Showtime): John Houseman was sterling in re-creating his Oscar-winning role as imperious law professor Charles Kingsfield, but his opposite number had to be effective, as well. James Stephens scored as the successor to the movie's Timothy Bottoms as earnest, eager-to-please law student James Hart.

"Fame" (1982-83, NBC; 1983-87, syndication): All the buoyancy of the 1980 movie about New York's High School for the Performing Arts was retained — along with the title song and several cast members — in the story of students dealing with rites of passage while trying to build music or dance careers for themselves.

"Buffy the Vampire Slayer" (1997-2001, WB; 2001-03, UPN): What had been a modestly successful horror-comedy movie became a cult phenomenon as a series, elevating former soap-opera actress Sarah Michelle Gellar to stardom in the title role.

"In the Heat of the Night" (1988-92, NBC; 1992-95, CBS): Carroll O'Connor (also an executive producer of the show) and Howard Rollins assumed the roles originated by Rod Steiger and Sidney Poitier in the drama of lawmen in a Mississippi town.

"Bates Motel" (2013-17, A&E Network): The roots of Norman Bates' (Freddie Highmore) fixation on his mother (Vera Farmiga) were explored in this "Psycho" prequel.

"Fargo" (2014-present, FX): Major overhauls of the story and cast from season to season of this seriocomic show only have given it more juice, and have brought it a number of award wins. The show's fifth season — with cast members including Jon Hamm and Jennifer Jason Leigh — begins Tuesday, Nov. 21.

Together with his friends Miles Morales, aka Spin (Jakari Fraser) and Gwen Stacy, aka Ghost-Spider (Lily Sanfelippo), Spidey teams up with other Marvel heroes to take down evil villains and save the day.

“Hailey's on It!” - Season 1, New Episodes (Nov. 22)

This animated adventure comedy follows Hailey (voiced by Auli'i Cravalho), a risk-averse but resourceful teenager on a mission to complete every item on her long list of challenging — and sometimes impractical — tasks in order to save the world. With her best friend Scott (voiced by Manny Jacinto), Hailey is always encountering new challenges — and more opportunities to conquer her fears.

“The Naughty Nine” (Nov. 23)

This new family holiday adventure follows fifth grader Andy (Winslow Fegley), who has been a troublemaker all year. So, when Christmas morning rolls around and he finds himself stiffed on presents from Santa. Feeling like his behavior didn't warrant so harsh a punishment, Andy teams up with eight other “naughty listers” to help him pull off an elaborate heist, making the trip to Santa's village at the North Pole to get the presents they feel they are owed. Also starring Danny Glover as Santa Claus, alongside Camila Rodriguez, Anthony Joo, Imogen Cohen, Clara Stack, Deric McCabe, Ayden Elijah and Madilyn Kellam.

Buddy Valastro form “Buddy Valastro's Cake Dynasty”

Planet Earth III BBCA 8 p.m.

In this new episode, Sir David Attenborough follows a pair of ostriches in the baked Namib Desert looking to raise a family. Meanwhile, near the equator, in a Brazilian grassland known as the Cerrado, he follows a rare fruit-eating maned wolf.

Kennedy HIST 8 p.m.

This premiere examines the remarkable life, enduring legacy and leadership of President John F. Kennedy during his formative years (1917-1940), including his time in school, his relationship with his family and his early interests in history and politics.

All Rise OWN 9 p.m.

Sometimes, the truth is stranger than fiction, and when you're seeing things from the bench, it looks even weirder. New judge Lola Carmichael (Simone Missick) and her mentor (Marg Helgenberger) find justice is hard to come by in a flawed legal process.

Buddy Valastro's Cake Dynasty A&E 10 p.m.

Buddy has a lot on his plate as Mother's Day closes in. In addition to the regular Mother's Day rush, Buddy has to create a custom cake for the 50th anniversary of Secretariat's Triple Crown win and shoot his first ever Lifetime movie.

Suzanne Somers was a show's "Sheriff"

BY JAY BOBBIN

Q: I enjoyed Suzanne Somers in "Three's Company" and "Step by Step," but didn't she also star in another series? – Wendy Fine, via e-mail

A: The late actress and business entrepreneur also headlined the syndicated sitcom 'She's the Sheriff' for two seasons (1987-89). She did indeed play a Nevada town's sheriff, who assumed the job after the death of its previous occupant, her husband. George Wyner and Pat Carroll were among the other regular cast members on the show, which was developed by producers who also were doing ABC's "Growing Pains" at the same time. Somers also hosted a syndicated talk show during the 1994-95 television season, and when she passed in October, some celebrities who posted tributes to her on social media mentioned the pleasant experiences they said they'd had with Somers on that program.

Q: I know that Mark-Paul Gosselaar has made a lot of series. What was his last one before the one he has now, "Found"? – Matt Slade, Gettysburg, Pa.

A: Before his current NBC show, the actor had a recurring role on ABC's "Will Trent" during its first season, and he also recurred in his original part as Zack Morris in the "Saved by the Bell" revival that Peacock streamed in 2020-21. As for his last full-fledged starring role in a show, though, that was in ABC's "Black-ish" spinoff "Mixed-ish" (2019-21). Gosselaar had quite a few series during the decade that began with 2010, also including "Franklin & Bash" on TNT, "Truth Be Told" on NBC, the Fox shows "Pitch" and "The Passage," and "Nobodies" on TV Land. He recently said at a fan convention that he was so upset by the relatively short life that the baseball-themed and critically well-received "Pitch" had, he had thought about quitting the entertainment business.

HOOPS PREVIEW 2023

A SPECIAL PUBLICATION OF The Connington News

GARRETT PITTS SPORTS EDITOR

Let's sit back and watch some great basketball

It is that time of year again.

Last season was filled with amazing stories, teams and players. We saw multiple teams make the playoffs and we saw many players take the next step individually.

Looking at the new year, there is going to be a lot of new going around.

New coaches and new players are going to be the story as Newton, Alcovy, Eastside and Social Circle battle it out for a chance to play playoff basketball at the end of the regular season.

We will see a lot of new faces in 2023, specifically when it comes to who will be coaching these teams. Let's start with a familiar face who is now in a new spot.

Taylor Jackson, formerly the head coach of Social Circle, is now the head coach of the Alcovy boy's team.

Jackson is coming off two very successful seasons as the coach of the Redskins, so it will be very interesting what he is able to do with the Alcovy boys team.

Sophomore Andre Jernigan is coming off a strong freshman campaign to play alongside Nick Durham and Tim Walls who will be the driving force for the Tigers.

GARRETT PITTS SPORTS EDITOR

The Alcovy girls team is going into the year with a young team, but they still have senior Luv Llewellyn who will return in the middle of the season due to an injury.

For Newton, it is going to have to go into the 2023 season losing a large portion of production.

Stephon Castle, Jakai Newton and MJ Whitlock are out the door, but new head coach Barry Browner is ready to maintain the standard in the Newton basketball program.

The team is going to be led by senior Jabez Jenkins, who will pair with Tim Prather, Tay Jefferies and Ted Neal as they battle a tough schedule.

Looking at the Newton girls' team, they are looking for a strong bounce-back in Jawan Bailey's second year as head coach.

One of the biggest differences for the Lady Rams in 2023 will be the return of Sanaa Tripp, who will be one of the main contributors for Newton in her senior season.

The Lady Rams had a strong showing in their scrimmage against Sandy Creek, and Tripp was the reason why.

Transitioning to Eastside, where we have two teams who are both looking to build off last year.

The Lady Eagles, led by head coach Gladys King, will have to recover from the loss of Mehkyla White, who provided consistent offense for the team during her Eastside career.

Looking at the season ahead, the Lady Eagles look to be led by Jailyn Williams, Kalie Kracht and Morgan Sandema.

The Eastside boy's team, led by head coach Dorian Randolph, are looking to build off a Sweet Sixteen appearance from a year ago.

Though they lost multiple starters from the lineup, the Eagles look primed for another playoff season with the duo of Trebor Edwards and Larry Rivers.

Last but not least, we have Social Circle, who will be led by new head coach Norman Jones.

Jones will be coaching both the boys' and girls' teams as he hopes to maintain the success of the boy's team while rebuilding the girl's team into a yearly contender.

Similar to Newton, the Redskins boys' team suffered major turnover from a year ago, losing Quin and Lamarius Jackson, DaShon Hyman and AJ Vinson.

Despite the losses, Jones feels good about the boys' team, which will be led by Justin Russell and Derrick White.

For the girls' team, all eyes will be on Jada Hyman as she looks to finish with 1,000 points in her junior season.

With Jones as head coach, he is looking to turn the Social Circle girl's program into an annual player in their region.

As we approach the first month of the season, there is a lot to look forward to and a lot we will learn.

But, as always, let's just make sure to sit back and watch some amazing basketball.

Alcovy set for first season under Jackson

DJ MOORE CORRESPONDENT

Basketball season for the Alcovy Boys basketball team is around the corner. The Tigers will be gearing up for the 2023-2024 season after finishing the 2022-2023 season 9-17. The Tigers will now be led under first year coach Taylor Jackson. Jackson spent the last four seasons at Social Circle High School. He led the Redskins to a Final Four appearance back in the 2021-2022 season as well as back-to-back region crowns. Although it will be Jackson's first season at the helm for the Tigers, he believes that his team is in one of the toughest regions in Class AAAAAA. Alcovy will face opponents like Woodward Academy and Jonesboro that have made deep runs in the playoffs in the past. "We might be playing in one of the toughest regions in the entire state, so we know if we want to get to where we want to go, we have to compete with them," Jackson said. Jackson is looking for a major jump from reigning All-Region player, junior guard Nick Durham and sophomore guard Andre Jernigan to help lead the team. "This year I expect Nick and Dre [Andre] to make the leap," Jackson said. "Nick was an All Region player last year so that shouldn't be a surprise answer. But Andre has really taken his game to the next level and he's an absolute bucket getter." The Tigers will mainly be focusing on making the right play and out-scoring their opponents on a night to night basis. Last year the Tigers averaged 63 points per game while giving up 67.8 points per game. "We are trying to make great decisions and shoot a lot of threes but at the end of the day we just want to be really smart," Jackson said. "One thing I have challenged our players to see if we can average 75 points per game." Durham and Jernigan believe in their new head coach because of the preparation and the attention to detail that Jackson has emphasized in the off season even though it's a new man in charge. "Coach Jackson has us working out 24/7 and having us in the gym to get better everyday," Durham said. "He has us locked in everyday and we are learning how to stick together and play together." The Tigers will officially open up their season on the road to Dekalb County and take on the McNair Mustangs on Tuesday, Nov. 14 at 7:30 p.m.

Lady Tigers ready to roll for the 2023-2024 season

DJ MOORE CORRESPONDENT

The Alcovy Lady Tigers are ready to roll for the 2023-2024 basketball season. Last year, Alcovy missed the playoffs by one spot, finishing fifth in Region 3-AAAAAA. Region opponents like Lovejoy, Forest Park and Woodward Academy stood in Alcovy's way. But now, eighth year head coach Justin Hunter and the Lady Tigers are trying to make the leap forward to qualify for the postseason. If the squad is successful, it will be their first advancement since the 2019-2020 season when Alcovy finished fourth in the region, According to Hunter, it all starts in the offseason. "We have had constant participation numbers to show up for practice which has allowed our girls to gel as a team and get better on a daily basis," Hunter said. Alcovy finished 13-12 overall with a 5-10 record in Region 3-AAAAAA. While the Lady Tigers missed out on the postseason, Hunter believes there are still some positives from last year for the program to build off of. By doing so, Hunter has faith that the coaches and players will reach their goals set forth for the upcoming year.

"Going into last year we had the most wins that we had here in a while, which was produced by the commitment of the veterans and seniors who have been a part of the program for a few years," Hunter said. "Now with the few veterans we have this year, we are just taking some of the pros that we had last year and continue to build on while focusing on improving our weaknesses." This year the coaching staff for the Lady Tigers is expecting multiple people to help lead this team. Hunter highlighted senior Luv Llewellyn as a key returner. As a junior, she averaged 9.4 points, nine rebounds and 1.1 assists per game. "Luv was our most valuable player last year and she understands what the culture we have set here at Alcovy," Hunter said. "She has been here mentally and physically at the practice but she can't participate with an injury that will hamper her for the start of the season." The Lady Tigers will open up their season on the road as they travel to DeKalb County to take on the McNair Lady Mustangs on Nov. 14 at 5.30 p.m.

Good Luck On A Great Basketball Season!

Eagles building toward longer post season stay

PHILLIP B. HUBBARD MANAGING EDITOR

Eastside’s 2022-23 basketball campaign produced a historic result. For the first time in program history, the Eagles advanced to the Sweet Sixteen of the Class AAAAAA playoffs.

Over the offseason, head coach Dorrian Randolph and the players have been working hard to not only replicate last year’s result, but to go further.

It all starts with team chemistry. “The thing I’ve noticed that puts me in the mindset of the team last year is trying to be a family,” Randolph said. “Not to care about who’s putting the ball in the basket, just the fact that it’s going in the basket and we’re scoring more than they are.”

The Eagles have been intentional in the team bonding emphasis.

For instance, the coaches and players did a 24-hour lock in at Eastside High where they watched “The Covenant.” Players also did a “Give him his flowers” team building activity.

In that exercise, players sat in a chair with teammates surrounding them in a circle sharing what they mean to them and how they have impacted each other.

PHOTOS BY GARRETT PITTS | COVINGTON NEWS

Witnessing the feedback was surreal for Randolph.

“Just to hear some of the things kids were saying to the other kid and see how the people in the chair were taking it in,” Randolph said. “Some of them got emotional. Each of them at the end — this really stuck out to me — was they said, ‘I love you, man.’”

Eastside graduated seven seniors off of last year’s roster and currently have five seniors. Of those seniors, Randolph highlighted Larry “LJ” Rivers and Trebor Edwards as the leaders.

Randolph said Rivers is a vocal leader while Edwards is a “show me on the court” type of leader.

Edwards recognized last year’s result as motivation for the 2023-24 squad heading into the season.

“It adds a lot, because we didn’t make the goal we wanted to make, which was winning state,” Edwards said. “The guys that are coming back are all ready to win.”

The Eagles’ schedule features tough competition.

Randolph acknowledged non-region opponents Cedar Grove and Newton with Region 8-AAAAAA foes Winder-Barrow, Loganville, Clarke Central and Jefferson as high quality opponents.

Plus, Eastside will compete in the Lemon Street Classic as well as the Panama City Classic.

In addition to team chemistry, Randolph emphasized the importance of playing disciplined defense, sharing the ball on offense and having an energetic bench.

But, with six of last year’s 13-man roster returning, it will be the players’ postseason exposure that the Eagles will depend on once games get going.

“We’re going to lean on that experience. They’ve been there, they’ve been in tough games, they got playoff experience. We’re going to lead on those guys,” Randolph said. “We want to be a more player centered team this year.”

Lady Eagles confident for playoff return

PHILLIP B. HUBBARD MANAGING EDITOR

Over the last few seasons, the Eastside Lady Eagles have inched closer to qualifying for the Class AAAAAA playoffs. In the 2023-24 season, the Lady Eagles do not just want to get close, but definitively punch their ticket to the postseason.

Head coach Gladys King that this current roster can be the team to do just that.

“I am really confident that this group can make that step to get there,” King said. “I don’t want to sound arrogant or cocky about it, it’s just that I have confidence and I’ve seen how hard these girls have worked. I’ve seen how they’ve bought in.”

Eastside aspires to finish top three in Region 8-AAAAA as well as go out and play hard every time they take the court.

Senior Kaliel Kracht shares in her coach’s confidence.

“We want to hopefully get further than we did last year,” Kracht said. “We want to try and get to that Sweet Sixteen. Just try to improve on what we did last year.”

King highlighted many individuals who have elevated their game to help lead the team this year.

In addition to Kracht, juniors Jaielyn Williams and Morgan Sandema were mentioned in addition to sophomores Jarilix Rivera-Villarini and Aysia Spivey.

Freshmen Ari Carter and De’Aysia Banks have made progress this offseason, according to King.

Williams relayed her aspirations for this season, too.

“Being a leader, scoring and helping my teammates out,” Williams said.

The Lady Eagles will have a lot of guards to rotate on and off the floor for the 2023-24 campaign, which is an answer to King’s prayers.

“I’ve been praying for guards and I’ve got a lot of guards and I’m going to play those guards,” King said. “Anytime you can have guards on the floor, they get the ball down the floor. I’m OK with it. I’ll

With players like Williams and Rivera at the guard positions alongside Carter as a forward, King said it will make the Lady Eagles more versatile.

“It doesn’t slow anything down. Everybody’s been able to stay at the same pace. Sometimes, when you have bigs, it kind of slows things down. But everybody’s been working up to that pace and speed,” King said. “It’s getting things down the floor and doing the things we need to do — not turning the ball over and stuff like that. So, I’m really impressed with that.”

King has great anticipation for what this year may hold for this year’s group. Not only the experience the young team gained from last year, but how the players have worked in the offseason.

King believes that will help get the Lady Eagles ready to compete in Region 8-AAAAA for that playoff spot.

“Any given night, anybody can win,” King said. “It depends on how hard you come out and if you’re being competitive.”

Rams aim for state with new look team

GARRETT PITTS SPORTS EDITOR

New faces will be the story for the Newton Rams boy's basketball program as they eye another deep playoff run.

Following a 2022 season that saw the Rams finish with a 19-11 record and an Elite Eight appearance, Barry Browner took over as head coach of Newton with the departure of Charlemagne Gibbons.

Going into his first offseason as the Rams' head coach, Browner had his work cut out for him as he adopted a roster that needed a new starting five.

"We are a young team. We have guys that returned, but they played near the end of last season. So, we have a lot of new guys," Browner said. "Inexperience has been the key with these guys. They are on a big stage now so for them, it will be different."

Though a large portion of Newton's players were on last year's roster, Browner believes this season will put those players in spots that they have never been in before. Despite the challenge, Browner feels confident in his players.

"We are asking them to do things that some of them have never done. It is going to be different," Browner said. "Some guys have taken the challenge, but as we continue to grow and gel as a team we are going to be ok."

When discussing the players that will play key minutes, Browner feels confident in his new starting group as they continue to grow in their roles.

"Jabez Jenkins has been here for all four years and is a senior [leader]. Tay Jefferies has really stepped up for us. Tim Prather played a bit last year but is now stepping into a starting role. Ted Neal had a phenomenal summer and played good, he is going to be a big time player for us. We have Zack Harden who is playing football, so once their season ends, he will be a big piece for us," Browner said. "They have not had to take on this role and now they are stepping into something different, filling in the roles of Stephon, Jakai and MJ."

In Browner's eyes, Jenkins is seen as a clear leader in the locker room, and the senior has taken the responsibility and ran with it.

"People have said I have been a natural born leader since I was little," Jenkins said. "I just take that [role] and help everyone get better off and on the court."

From a schematic standpoint, Browner wants to use the team's athleticism to their advantage in a tough Region 4-AAAAAAA.

"We want to push the pace. We are not that big so we rely on playing fast and getting out," Browner said. "Our staple is defense, we have to be a better defensive unit. One of the things I talk to them about is, 'We have to win the rebound war, we have to win the free throw war.'"

With the players' eyes focused on another playoff run, Jenkins kept it simple when discussing what this year's team needs to do in order to get back there.

"We just have to work," Jenkins said. "Work day in day out and just play hard."

Lady Rams looking to take next step in 2023

GARRETT PITTS SPORTS EDITOR

PHOTOS BY GARRETT PITTS | THE COVINGTON NEWS

Going into a new season, the Newton Lady Rams are looking to take that next step.

Newton finished the 2022 season with a 3-22 record while going winless in Region 4-AAAAAAA under first year head coach Jawan Bailey.

Now that he has a year under his belt, Bailey feels that this year's team has the pieces that can lead to better success. Most notably, Bailey sees his offense taking a jump.

"We have more weapons on offense," Bailey said. "We have a more open offense that the kids will have to be a little more free and to play their own style, versus last year where we had to be really systematic."

Newton's offensive attack will be led by Sanaa Tripp, who spent the offseason working on sharpening her skills with the goal leading the Lady Rams to the playoffs in mind.

"I have been working on it coming off a good summer," Tripp said. "Playing my last year, I am just trying to go out with a bang and hopefully win a state championship."

Outside of the scoring, Bailey just wants his team to play their style of ball. In Bailey's eyes, doing so will allow the team to get to the next level.

"Defensively we are doing a lot of the same things," Bailey said. "We want to be really aggressive and disciplined at the same time. [We want to] force teams to play to our speed and our tempo, but the discipline part is the key. We have to box out a lot better and rotate a lot better."

One challenge for the Lady Rams is the lack of experience. Coaching a young team, Bailey discussed what growth he wants to see from his players as they get ready for the season.

"At this part of the season, it is about getting comfortable with the schemes that we are trying to do," Bailey said. "The growth for them in my eyes is seeing them do things on offense and defense without thinking and without hesitating."

As one of only two seniors on the roster, Tripp knows that the team will control most of their own success this year, but she feels confident in the ability and attitude in the locker room.

"Our mindset has been to remain disciplined, stay tough, keep up the high energy and just do what we do," Tripp said. "We have been working. We have a young team, but the energy is high and the effort is there."

New faces plan to lead Redskins back to state

GARRETT PITTS SPORTS EDITOR

After key departures from the 2023 squad, the Social Circle Redskins boys basketball team is ready to reload with new faces at the forefront.

The man leading the change is new head coach Norman Jones, who was previously an assistant coach on the Redskins' staff. Though he plans on keeping many of the same fundamentals that led Social Circle to state in previous years, Jones does plan on molding the team into his own.

"This year we just wanted to learn how to play with more of a college style," Jones said. "Playing with pace, reading the defense."

Jones will look to build off a 17-11 record last season that saw the Redskins fall in the first round of the Class A-Division I playoffs. The year prior, Social Circle made it to the Final Four.

One challenge for Jones going into his first offseason as head coach was replacing the starting five from a year ago.

Despite waiting on a few players to join the team at the conclusion of the Redskins' football season, Jones has liked what he has seen from his team ahead of their season opener.

"We look solid, they're sharing the ball, talking and working together," Jones said. "I knew it was going to take them a little bit to gel so I told them, 'It is not about how we start, by the time region play comes around we will be clicking on all cylinders'. Right now, we have to be a defensive minded team first."

Senior Justin Russell knows how new the team is and how important team building will be for the Redskins if they want to have another deep playoff run.

"Our mindset is based on our chemistry," Russell said. "We are a fresh team, so we just have to keep building our chemistry and get better with each other."

Russell and Ethan Brown serve as the two seniors on a Redskins team that is filled with primarily underclassmen.

With the youth on the team, Jones knows exactly the style of ball he expects to see from Social Circle going forward.

"We are going to be physical. We are going to play with effort, play with pace and we are not going to turn the ball over," Jones said. "That is what I believe in, we are going to share the ball. The saying is, 'Everyone got to eat.' No one is going to be starving, we play high intensity basketball.

The expectations do not just stop with the coach.

Redskins players, such as Derrick White, share the same mindset.

"We have to go out there and be aggressive, and for everyone to play their role to try to win the game," White said. "Every practice, we have been there to compete. Our energy is up — we are trying to start out the first three games with wins."

Lady Redskins want to 'change the culture' in 2023

JET RAWLS CORRESPONDANT

The Lady Redskins will see a new face take the reins this season as Norman Jones has stepped up from an assistant position to become head coach of Social Circle girls' basketball.

Jones takes over a team that finished 7-17 last year, with a 2-4 record in Region 5-A Division I. He believes that a change in mentality is required to take the program to where it should be.

"I just want to change the culture, change the mindset," Jones said. "I want us to take basketball seriously, and to believe that basketball is serious. Around here, the Social Circle girls basketball program is used to losing. We want to make it competitive."

Leading the Lady Redskins on the court is junior star Jayda Hyman. The junior put up 28 points Tuesday during a scrimmage against Rockdale County, and was 5-for-6 from behind the three-point line. She has set a goal for herself to hit 1,000 points in her high school career.

Hyman said that playing under a new coach has been an adjustment, but one that has helped the team improve.

"It has changed a lot," Hyman said. "We molded together over the summer and we played together so I feel like we have a good season ahead because our chemistry just keeps getting better and better."

Jones wants to put Hyman to the test to prepare her for playing at the college level.

"I am challenging her to be one of the best girls between Newton and Walton County, period," Jones said. "[I told her], 'If you want to be that, we can take you to the next level.' We are going to work on driving more, being more physical, getting to the free throw line and being a leader in the locker room and on the court."

Hyman is not the only leader that the Lady Redskins will rely on this season. Senior point guard Zikierra Stewart and sophomore Kara Lee Taylor are also expected to be big pieces for the Social Circle offense.

Notable games on the schedule for Social Circle include a rematch against rival Eastside, who the Lady Redskins fell to twice last year, one of which was a seven-point loss.

Jones' team will seek revenge against region foes Prince Avenue and Oglethorpe County, two teams that they could not notch a win against last year. The Lady Redskins will also look to keep their winning streak over Jasper County alive, who they have not lost to since the 2019-2020 season.

The Lady Redskins will kick off regular season action Tuesday, Nov 6 at Denmark High School. Social Circle opens at home two days later against Mt. Zion, where Jones will command the team for the first time in front of home fans.

"I am excited to see what it will look like when it all comes together," Jones said.
